New England Test Eyed By Nixon Camp

Vice President May Permit Use Of Name In Hampshire Voting

WASHINGTON (AP) — The possibility developed today that Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) may run a presidential handicap race in New Hampshire.

Associates said today Nixon is putting off for the time being any decision to permit his name to go on that state's March 8 preferential primary ballot.

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's withdrawal from contention seems to have left Nixon without prospective primary opponents and with a clear field for the 1960 GOP presidential nomination.

But some of the vice president's advisers are studying the possibility of entering his name in New Hampshire to give grassroot Republicans an opportunity to endorse in advance what appears to be his inevitable choice as their nominee.

Such a move could be calculated to offset Democratic contentions that GOP "bosses" turned Rockefeller down in favor of Nixon without consulting the wishes of the party's rank and file.

Nixon got a whopping write-in vote in New Hampshire in 1956 when unsuccessful efforts were being made to dump him from second place on the ticket headed by President Eisenhower.

With the state's GOP organization solidly behind him, Nixon could be expected to roll up an impressive total, even though he had no opponent to spice voter interest.

Kennedy, reported on the verge of plunging publicly into the contest for the Democratic presidential nomination, could find himself in the same position on his party's ballot.

Kennedy intends to get into every possible primary. Thus far his only prospective opponent in New

Burdensome Terms For Settlement Are Attacked By Cooper

WASHINGTON (AP)—The steel industry said today that union demands for an inflationary settlement have been the block to a steel-labor peace pact.

R. Conrad Cooper, speaking for the industry, told President Eisenhower's inquiry board that instead of reducing wage-benefit demands to keep within the industry's productivity gains, the union has only recently boosted its settlement terms.

Cooper is executive vice president of U. S. Steel Corp. and chief industry negotiator.

"The union now, in the face of an urgent need for settlement that would eliminate the economic uncertainties arising from a continuation of the dispute and the possibility of resumption of the nationwide strike at the end of the injunction period, seeks to impose even more burdensome terms of settlement," Cooper said.

"This is the very antithesis of union responsibility and proves beyond question that it is the union's policies and bargaining practices that have been solely responsible for the continuing deadlock."

The three - man board, headed by University of Pennsylvania Prof. George W. Taylor, is gathering data for a report to be submitted to Eisenhower on Jan. 6.

In open hearings Monday the panel heard the Steelworkers Union outline its position in testimony marked by bitterness and a scarcely veiled threat of a renewed steel walkout in late January.

The union labeled the steel firms "industrial isolationists" out of step with the rest of American management.

David J. McDonald, union president, hinted that when the present 80-day Taft-Hartley law injunction expires on Jan. 26, the union may strike only part of the industry in a divide and conquer strategy.

Asked to be specific on plans for a renewed strike, McDonald said only "Would Ike tell Khrushchev?"

R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, said he considered the notion of a selective strike only academic because the union has traditionally conducted walkouts on an industry-wide basis.

Snow And Ice Storms Pound At Northeast

Repeat Performance Of Wintry Weather Dealt To Midwest

By The Associated Press

Snow and ice storms pounded the Northeast today, a repeat performance of the blustery wintry weather which dealt damaging blows across wide areas of the Midwest over the weekend.

The storms in the Midwest appeared diminishing. Only light snow and snow mixed with rain fell in the upper Mississippi Valley and the Great Lakes region.

The blizzard-like storms blew into the Northeast on stiff northerly winds. Heavy snow warnings were posted for New Hampshire, Vermont and southern Maine. Moderate to heavy snow was in prospect over much of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Sleet, freezing rain, hail, snow and fog crippled travel and cut off electricity in many parts of New York state during the night. Moderate to heavy snow was the outlook in many areas.

As the snow abated in the Midwest, many highways and roads remained clogged with snow, leaving hundreds of motorists stranded. Blowing and drifting snows hampered snow removal operations.

The stormy, windy weather across most areas from the Plains to New England has caused widespread damage and inconvenience to millions since Christmas.

At least nine deaths were attributed to the storms. Traffic accidents on ice or snow - slicked highways killed three persons in Maine and two each in Kansas, Wisconsin and Iowa.

Communications and power service were disrupted in many areas. Ice-coated lines broke and high winds pulled down wires. Plane and bus travel was halted in many places, curtailed in others. Shipping in many Eastern ports was halted Monday by a dense fog.

Driving conditions throughout the belt of snow, rain and sleet were extremely hazardous.

Cold rain, whipped by strong winds, hit the Philadelphia area Monday night, lifting the heavy fog which for two days blanketed the Delaware Valley along with most of the Atlantic seaboard.

Plans for the campaign are expected to be mapped soon at a meeting drive chairmen and community leaders from all parts of the county. E. Allan McKeever is chairman of the county chapter of the National Foundation, which stages the campaign each year.

Bridge Firm Buys Acreage Below Newell

A 62-acre Ohio River front site in the Congo area has been purchased by the Fort Pitt Bridge Works — a structural steel fabricating concern — for future development, officials of the firm have announced.

A spokesman for the company said the firm has no immediate plans for use of the tract, but said among the primary reasons for obtaining the property was to utilize the river shipping.

The firm, founded in 1896, employes between 500 and 600 at its plant at Canonsburg, Pa. J. M. Straub is president of the company, which has its main offices at Pittsburgh.

The company produces bridges and other structural shapes for use in large buildings and industrial plants, obtaining basic beams plates and formed steel parts from other firms.

Fronting along the river for about 1,700 feet, the tract is divided into 2 parts — one along the river adjoining the Globe Brick Co. land and the other south of Route 66 opposite the brick firm.

The land was owned by Hewitt Howard of Chester, and includes the site of the former Arbuckle homestead, a historical landmark for many years. The purchase price was about $40,000, it was reported.

An option on the property had been held for some time by the Monongehela Power Co., and the arrangements for the purchase were promoted by the utility and the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council.

U.S. Decides To Free Self Of A-Test Ban

Gives Prior Notice To World; Can Be Tougher With Reds

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — The United States freed itself today to resume nuclear weapons tests at any time—but with prior notice to the rest of the world.

The decision was reached at a top level conference of 15 administration officials, headed by President Eisenhower.

It put this country in a position to take a tougher stand in negotiations with Russia at Geneva over discontinuing nuclear tests.

What the administration did was to begin what a presidential statement called a "period of voluntary suspensions of nuclear weapons tests," beginning Jan. 1.

During this period, the President said, the U.S. will "continue its active program of weapon research, development and laboratory-type experimentation."

"Although we consider ourselves free to resume nuclear weapon testing, we shall not resume nuclear weapons tests without announcing our intention in advance of any resumption," Eisenhower said.

At the moment the United States is operating under a moratorium on tests which last until midnight Thursday.

It has been in effect for 14 months. The White House said the moratorium was a definite commitment covering a definite time, as distinct from the new "voluntary suspension" which carries no deadline.

Time Magazine Picks Ike As 'Man Of Year'

NEW YORK (AP)—Time magazine today named President Eisenhower its Man of the Year for 1959.

The magazine said the President "towered as the world's best-known, best - liked citizen" after his trip to Europe, Asia and Africa.

Time's editors choose each year the man or woman who "dominated the news of that year and left an indelible mark—for good or ill—on history."

The magazine selected Eisenhower once before—in 1944.

Brief 'Spring' Brings Lightning, Thunder

A sub-freezing range of 28 to 32 degrees is expected tonight with winter returning slowly to the Tri-State district after spring - like temperatures Monday.

Dam 8 at Newell recorded a balmy high of 55 degrees for several hours yesterday afternoon and the midnight reading was only 48. But by morning, the thermometer was on the skids and it touched 38 at 10 a. m. and was dropping slowly. A high range of 32 to 36 was forecast for this afternoon.

The cold snap with flurries had been forecast for last night but it was moving eastward at a slower rate than was expected.

The early morning drizzle tapered off and snow mixed with rain was forecast this afternoon with snow flurries expected tonight and Wednesday.

Yesterday's "spell of spring" included lightning and thunder accompanying showers which washed out a heavy fog that had settled over the valley early in the evening.

Much colder weather covered most of Ohio this morning, with temperatures from 29 at Toledo to 35 at Columbus and 40 at Chesapeake.

Light snow flurries were falling in the northern half of the state at dawn, while a mixture of rain and snow was occurring in the southern half.

Rainfall amounts during the past 24 hours ranged upward to 0.6 inch in the northeast counties, where midnight thundershowers occurred. Dam 8 reported 0.13 inch this morning.

Suspect Waits Hearing For Forgery Count

Salineville District Man Also Will Face Charge In City Case

A Salineville area man is scheduled to receive a preliminary hearing this afternoon before County Judge James MacDonald at Lisbon on a charge of forgery after allegedly passing a bogus check at a Wellsville store.

Daniel Morgan, 22, of Salineville R. D. 1 was being held in Wellsville jail this morning following arrest Monday.

Police Chief John Hephner said Morgan was writing checks to himself, drawing them against ficticious accounts at the Wellsville branch of the Potters Bank & Trust Co.

An East Liverpool Marine remained in "critical" condition today at the Bedford (Pa.) County Memorial Hospital with injuries suffered in a headon auto-truck collision Sunday at 9:45 a. m. on Route 126 about 5 miles south of Breezewood.

Pvt. David R. Deyarmon, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Deyarmon, 929 Florence St., suffered a ruptured spleen and lacerations in the crash which claimed the life of a companion, Gary J. Ranchel, 18, of Lima. Two other Marines were injured. Wilbur Steigewalt, 21, of Wadsworth, was in "good" condition today and Irvin E. Carnes, 18, of North Jackson remained in "fair" condition.

The Pennsylvania State Police at Bedford said it still is not known who was driving the car owned by Deyarmon. He left East Liverpool Sunday at 3:30 a. m. to return to Camp Lejeune, N. C., after spending a holiday leave at home. He picked up the other three Marines in Youngstown.

West Agrees To Change In Summit Date

MOSCOW (AP)—The Western powers today agreed to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's Christmas Day request to change the date of next spring's summit conference in Paris.

Informed sources said President Eisenhower, President Charles de Gaulle of France and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain proposed May 16 in notes handed to Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, instead of April 27, as they had originally suggested.

The dates of April 21 or May 4 had been proposed by Khrushchev.

A change became necessary because the West's original date would have meant Khrushchev would be away from Moscow during the massive May 1 celebrations—an impossible situation for a Soviet leader.

McDonald, Patton On TV

Opposing Views Presented On Issues In Steel Strike

CLEVELAND (AP) — Opposing views on issues in the steel strike were presented by United Steelworkers Union President David J. McDonald and Thomas F. Patton, president of Republic Steel Corp., in a television program presented here.

Declaring, "We did everything humanly possible to avoid the 116-day strike," McDonald said his union offered at least two alternative methods through which a settlement could be reached.

The alternatives, outlined by McDonald in the broadcast Monday night, are: Submission of the entire dispute to a fact finding board or presidential board of inquiry for recommended settlement. Or, continued negotiation within the framework of the separate settlement terms reached by the union with Kaiser Steel Corp.

Patton termed the offer by Republic and the industry of a three-year contract with wage increases and improved fringe benefits a "fair proposal." It would provide employes "three years of freedom from the worries and hardships that strikes create," he said.

Also discussed was the controversial issue of work rules changes requested by management as aimed at "eliminating waste and improving efficiency." Patton said the industry offered to place the issue before a joint union-industry board for recommended settlement and, if necessary, biding arbitration.

McDonald, Patton On TV

Opposing Views Presented On Issues In Steel Strike

CLEVELAND (AP) — Opposing views on issues in the steel strike were presented by United Steelworkers Union President David J. McDonald and Thomas F. Patton, president of Republic Steel Corp., in a television program presented here.

Declaring, "We did everything humanly possible to avoid the 116-day strike," McDonald said his union offered at least two alternative methods through which a settlement could be reached.

The alternatives, outlined by McDonald in the broadcast Monday night, are: Submission of the entire dispute to a fact finding board or presidential board of inquiry for recommended settlement. Or, continued negotiation within the framework of the separate settlement terms reached by the union with Kaiser Steel Corp.

Patton termed the offer by Republic and the industry of a three-year contract with wage increases and improved fringe benefits a "fair proposal." It would provide employes "three years of freedom from the worries and hardships that strikes create," he said.

Also discussed was the controversial issue of work rules changes requested by management as aimed at "eliminating waste and improving efficiency." Patton said the industry offered to place the issue before a joint union-industry board for recommended settlement and, if necessary, biding arbitration.

Now Leftist-Tinged Social Revolution

Castro May Be Around Long Time

By HAROLD K. MILKS

HAVANA (AP) — In the year since Fidel Castro and his bearded followers marched out of the hills his military revolt has changed into a leftist tinged social revolution.

And no matter how popular—or unpopular — it may be here or abroad his regime has dug so deeply into every phase of Cuban life that even his most severe critics admit Castro may be around a long time.

The liberty he promised in a triumphal procession into Havana remains far away as do the national elections Cubans expected after the 26th of July Movement toppled Fulgencio Batista's reign. Many here believe elections and a restoration of civil liberties are farther away today than when Castro took over last January.

Looking back over a year of promises, Fidel Castro is still Cuba's most popular public figure. He may at the same time be its most hated.

A nationalistic movement with a distinct and steadily increasing trend toward the left, the Castro movement has split Cuba and Cubans.

He has lost thousands of his original supporters, many of them bitterly disillusioned by appeals to class hatred and his attacks on the United States and its policies. Probably he has gained many new ones, too, but on balance Fidel Castro lost ground during 1959.

In January he promised Cuba free elections as soon as a groundwork of unfettered political parties could be reestablished.

Today his own 26th of July Movement is the only political party functioning freely throughout Cuba, aside from the Cuban Communist Party (Partido Socialistia Popular). Others, including parties which fought against Batista during the revolution, have been virtually driven underground by threats that "those who are not 100 per cent with Castro are against him."

His regime has sent more than 500 persons to firing squads, mostly on charges of terroristic activities under Batista. Castro has all the power of an old-fashioned dictator. And that power is backed in the old-fashioned way, with Cuba's armed forces, and national police plus a new "people's army" of workers, peasants, and students loyal to Castro.

Conservative balance within the government has been driven out, either into exile, into well guarded obscurity, or into a Cuban political prison.

Those who are left foster and direct a program of social, economic, and agricultural reform.

This began in the Sierra Maestra hills where Castro convened his original cabinet last May to sign a drastic land reform program which in turn created an Institute of Agrarian Reform rapidly becoming more powerful than the Cuban government itself.

With an announced goal of breaking up all large landing holdings by expropriation and dividing the land among the landless peasants, this institute has moved steadily into many phases of Cuban public life.

Today it controls over two million acres of farmland and ranchland seized from Cuban and American owners, has created 500 state-directed rural cooperatives and opened more than 400 "people's stores."

As Castro's social and economic reforms reached the point of no return, a massive "hate America" campaign developed with Castro as its top director.

Many said Fidel needed such a campaign to keep himself before the masses. Regardless of the reason, he and his followers blasted the United States for everything wrong in Cuba.

The result was a sharp cooling off of relations between those two normally close neighbors, and an equally sharp decline in American tourism which normally represents one of Cuba's biggest dollar earners.

As a guess, Fidel retains the loyal support of perhaps 60 per cent of all Cubans—most of them from the lower end of the nation's economic and social scale.

Of the remaining 40 per cent, most oppose Castro, hope for a change here but bitterly resist any move to restore Batista or one of his followers.

But with all this, there has been a change in official morality.

Corruption and government have for decades been almost synonymous in Cuba but even Castro's critics say his administration has been remarkably free from graft.

Mute Charged With Murder Back On Stand

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A deaf mute, charged with first-degree murder in the bludgeon slaying last June 19 of a 32-year-old divorcee for whom he was a handyman, returns to the stand to testify in Summit County Common Pleas Court today.

Floyd Hyde, 29, telling his story in sign language and the broken speech of a child, testified Monday he was intimate with Mrs. Nina (Kitty) Reese. He said the relationship started two weeks after he was hired by replying to a want ad, in November, 1956. She was divorced from Carl Reese, Cleveland disc jockey.

The day after the first intimacy, Hyde testified, Mrs. Reese asked him to open a charge account for her in a downtown department store. Records of the store showed Hyde opened an account in his own name and for a "Kitty Hamlin" Nov. 26, 1956.

The handyman testified he moved from house to house with Mrs. Reese and that she occasionally slapped him when they got into quarrels.

Three faded pictures were introduced into evidence, showing Mrs. Reese partly clad on the side of a bed. Hyde told the court he took the photographs.

He spent at least $1,000 during December, 1958, for presents, food and liquor, Hyde testified. He said he earned the money—from $25 to $60 a day—as a deaf peddler selling combs.

The department store records showed Hyde purchased an automatic washer, a mink stole, two bicycles and a set of china on the account. The articles later were repossessed.

Test Shows Lover Lied

Crime Experts Are Called In Mentor Sniper Slaying

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Lake County's sheriff, admittedly baffled and without substantial clues, asked outside crime experts today to help solve the Christmas Eve sniper slaying of Charles R. Clark in nearby Mentor.

Sheriff William B. Evans said he would release from custody today Floyd E. Hargrove, on whom the investigation has concentrated and who in turn denied, admitted, then denied firing the fatal shot.

A polygraph test Moday indicated Hargrove, 35-year-old truck driver, lied when he admitted Saturday and again Sunday that he killed the husband of the woman with whom he carried on an eight-month love affair.

Evans has asked the state of Ohio to send its mobile crime laboratory to Mentor from London Prison Farm. And he wants Cleveland police experts to examine the lead slug that pierced Clark's right temple.

It was the failure of skin divers to find the rifle with which Hargrove said he fired that slug that cast doubt on his profession of guilt. Had it been thrown in Lake Erie, as Hargrove described, it should have been found.

Hargrove, a divorced father of five, said he decided after a 16-minute meeting at the jail Saturday with Mrs. Lois Clark that he "could spare her and her family any further investigation and suffering by confessing."

"I love her deeply. I'm worried for her welfare," he explained.

Mrs. Clark, a beautiful brunette of 30 who was a model in Florida where she met and married Clark at 16, has admitted extramarital sex relations with six men besides Hargrove, Sheriff Evans said. Three of these men were "absolved" by polygraph tests Monday, the sheriff said. Two others are in line for polygraph questions in connection with the killing, he added.

Clark, 35, a $10,000-a-year electrical engineer, was buried Monday after services in the Mentor Methodist Church where he was Sunday School superintendent. His wife said he never knew of her relations with other men.

Sheriff Evans said he planned to question Mrs. Clark today "without the lie box" but may use the polygraph "if she's calmed down enough." She has been under sedation much of the time since the slaying.

Mrs. Cark has told the sheriff that she went to Cleveland on Dec. 24 to buy two corduroy shirts as a gift for her husband. She said she was in another room with three of the Clarks' four children, trimming the Christmas tree, when the fatal bullet crashed through the kitchen window.

Clark, dressed in Boy Scout leader uniform because his troop was to make a caroling tour of the village, was opening a can of pumpkin for a pie. His oldest child, Carol, 12, was beside him when he fell.

Police have concluded the shot was fired from about 44 feet away and from a crotch in a tree in the Clarks' backyard. It was dark at the time and the ground was frozen too hard to show tracks.

Dorticos Asks Better Cuban, U.S. Relations

HAVANA (AP) — President Osvaldo Dorticos called again today for better relations between the United States and Cuba to be worked out on the basis of a new trade agreement.

Dorticos said on a TV panel the present poor relations between the two nations did not mean they could not be improved.

Dorticos emphasized the Castro regime's stand that Cuban sugar exports to the United States should be regulated by mutual agreement. He labled the present system of import quotas decided by the U.S. Congress "an intolerable instrument of undue pressure."

The head of Cuba's National Federation of Sugar Workers has warned that if the United States lowers its Cuban sugar quota, the union will ask for immediate nationalization of all U.S. enterprises in Cuba. Some U.S. senators have suggested Congress take punitive action against Cuba's anti-American attitude and exporpriation of U.S. property by lowering the quota of Cuban sugar which the United States buys above the world market price.

Hit By Car's Radiator Fan, Man Fatally Hurt

DENVER (AP)—Evaristo Quintana, 30, drove into a service station Monday and complained that his car wasn't running properly.

As he lifted the hood, a blade of the radiator fan flew off and hit Quintana on the forehead. He died two hours later.

His 'Bridge' Out; Can't Help Broadcast

CINCINNATI (AP) — Common Pleas Court Judge Carl W. Rich walked into a Western Union office with a message for New York.

He wanted to tell a sports broadcaster he was forced to change plans and couldn't assist in Saturday's radio coverage of the University of Cincinnati in the holiday festival basketball tournament.

The clerk read the message out loud:

"Bridge out. Unable to make it tonight. Good luck to the Bearcats and Coach Smith."

"Where's the bridge out?" she asked.

"In my mouth," the judge said with difficulty. "I broke my dentures eating Christmas dinner."

Slusser's Resignation Accepted By President

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower regretfully has accepted the resignation of Charles E. Slusser of Akron, Ohio, who has been commissioner of the Public Housing Administration for six years.

The President in a letter to Slusser said the commissioner's "contribution in the field of public housing has indeed been a significant one."

Slusser told Eisenhower: "For personal reasons I am returning to my home in Akron. . . ."

The resignation is effective Dec. 31.

Airport At Columbus Becomes Very Busy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A combination of bad weather on the East Coast and a 10,500-foot runway at Port Columbus turned the airport here into a busy commercial jet center Monday.

Five giant Boeing 707 liners landed here during the day. All were Los Angeles to New York flights.

Before Monday's rush the long runway, built for jet travel, had been used only twice for unscheduled stops. The strip is said to be the longest commercial runway between Newark, N.J., and Tucson, Ariz.

Woman On Bike Dies In Fire As B47 Tank Falls

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—A woman riding a bicycle died in a pillar of fire Monday when a B47 fuel tank fell like a bomb and exploded.

The victim was June A. David, 32-year-old mother of two boys.

Officer Clifford Smith said the woman was sucked into a fiery column that shot 250 to 300 feet high. Her incinerated body was found 30 to 40 feet from the bicycle.

The tank, laden with 1,750 gallons of fuel, fell as the plane rose from Davis-Monthan Air Force Base. Smith said it exploded on impact and spread a fiery carpet 675 feet long and 352 wide.

Even as a probe began, Air Force investigators praised the pilot for averting a greater tragedy. They said Capt. Donald R. Shilling, commander of the four-man crew, kept the fuel tank from falling in a densely populated Tucson suburb only by putting the plane into a steep bank.

The union seeks a 20-month contract with gains it values at about 30 cents an hour but which the industry claims would cost about 45 cents. The workers average $3.11 hourly, including overtime.

A dispute over work rules also is at issue. The companies say they want relief from contract terms that prevent them from making work force economies. The union maintains industry wants to invoke a speedup and cut out over 100,000 jobs.

More Teeth In The Anti-Gambling Laws

Because four Councilmen stuck to their guns in the face of pressure, East Liverpool police shortly will be armed with a stricter law to hurl against the gambling element.

As they had done on two previous readings, A. Stanley Kidder, W. E. Kaiser, William Y. Orr and Robert W. Sample Jr. provided the votes — at a special meeting of Council Monday — which assured approval of legislation that will become effective late in January.

H. A. Tullis, Samuel B. Webber and George E. Willshaw, who had voted previously against passing the ordinance as an emergency measure under suspension of rules, were not present yesterday when final action was taken.

The present Council has handled its duties well by and large during its term of office and it would have been pleasing if the new anti-gambling law had received unanimous approval so credit could have been accorded the group as a whole.

Such was not the case, however, and the four who cast the "yes" votes must be singled out for special praise instead. It would have been regrettable had the ordinance been allowed to gather dust on the shelf of "Unfinished Business".

No one is so naive as to believe gambling will disappear simply because more teeth have been placed in the law. It is seldom that illegal enterprises can be erased by legislation alone. But there's this about it, the police will be battling the numbers men and others on a more equal footing. Arrests and convictions could become more frequent as a result of the legislation.

Any action that will help crack down on gambling is to be commended. The four Councilmen responsible for passage of the anti-gambling ordinance have set an outstanding example for members of future Councils.

All The Straws Pointed West

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's decision to pull out of the contest for the Republican party's presidential nomination leaves no strings dangling.

It has the ring of double conviction. Gov. Rockefeller obviously means to make it stick. Even more to the point, he is making no secret of the fact the Republican leaders he talked to before reaching his decision mean to make it stick.

There was no demand among them for a chance to line up with an opponent to Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who has been the Republican party's obvious nominee since he ran successfully for the second time on the ticket with Dwight Eisenhower.

Mr. Nixon has done flawlessly everything he could have been expected to do in the role of strong vice president designated for him by President Eisenhower.

He has represented the United States abroad with dignity, charm and savvy. He has performed his duties at home with competency and an extraordinary sense of proportion. At this moment, no other public figure has a more finely honed sense of high-level politics than Vice President Nixon—and at this moment the public is conditioned by experience and observation to think a presidential candidate should have all the political savvy that can be crowded into him.

IN THE ABSENCE of a Nixon, a Rockefeller would have been an attractive contender for leadership of the Republican party in next year's national election. In the presence of a Nixon, a Rockefeller could not ignore the fact the more experienced contender had the nearly complete support of the party organization. When the straws were thrown into the air, they all pointed to California.

Gov. Rockefeller has tried to make it equally plain he is not a contender for the Republican vice presidential nomination, but here the disclaimer is not quite so absolute as it is in the matter of the presidential nomination.

No one is a contender for a vice presidential nomination. In the original plan for choosing presidents and vice presidents, the latter was the losing candidate for the presidency. To this day, no one publicly dreams of finishing second. That is something that happens, not something planned to turn out that way.

IT IS CONCEIVABLE that in the turning out which will occur next summer in the Republican nominating convention, Nelson A. Rockefeller might consider it a privilege to have his name bracketed with Nixon's at the head of the ticket.

If the numerous contenders for the Democratic nomination and the irreconcilable minorities vying for control of the party continue to cut up one another in the intervening months, an odds-on chance to be vice president of the United States might make the relative obscurity of a vice presidential candidacy seem worth the sacrifice of settling for less than first place on the party ticket.

Summits Should Be On Schedule

There have been times this year when some of us have wondered if summits were worth the trouble. But there also have been times when we wondered why there should be so much trouble about getting the heads of states together to talk about problems of mutual interest.

It seemed reasonable to suppose that international negotiations would have their best chance of success if the top men conducted them; that only routine matters could be turned over safely to subordinates.

It seemed reasonable to suppose, also, that whenever any one top man signified a desire to talk things over with his counterparts their response should be cheerful and automatically affirmative.

This finally became the view of Dwight D. Eisenhower, himself, though in the past he had said many times he preferred to let subordinates carry on the chores of diplomacy, with top men coming in only for final decisions.

But there continues to be difficulty about setting a date for a summit conference that will be agreeable to everybody, including the United States, the Soviet Union, Great Britain and France. The date that had been announced while President Eisenhower was in Paris did not prove to be agreeable to Premier Khruschev. A new one must be found.

That in itself would seem to be one of the things that might be settled at a summit conference—a time for holding such conferences in the future. It might well be a fixed date in a statesman's calendar, perhaps an annual event, with an option on a second meeting if desired.

It seems only reasonable that if the rest of us can meet our obligations on schedule the heads of states should be able to meet one another on schedule, to clear up old business and discuss new business as it arises. Summit conferences should be scheduled years in advance from now on, because it is going to take years to iron out existing problems, with no allowance for new ones.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Christmas gave America its first devastated areas. Never again can it be said the country has not known rocket attack. Countless homes were damaged and a lot of parents almost destroyed.

Today finds Pop and Mom demanding that the summit conference and the disarmament agreements include the kids, the toymakers and Santa Claus. (The curtain will be lowered here while Dad extracts a guided missile from his neck.)

Ballistic weapons headed toy lists, making household theme song, "Home, Sweet Canaveral.

Launching pads, rockets, instrument panels and outer space gadgetry took control over the old homestead, the ranch house and the city apartment. (Time out here while mother recovers a nose cone from the chandelier.)

You could tell the happy Christmas moppets by the sounds from the living room: "Check capsule! Check rocket thrust!—Compensate for wind drift! Give rundown on sections one, two and three! Are monitoring devices all set? Get ready for blast-off! Begin countdown! BAM-M-M!"

("There will be a four-minute interval here to permit calls to fire department and hospitals.)

ALL IN ALL the kids did better in rocketry than scientists at Canaveral. At least they got off the pad. It was a bad day for small house pets, especially puppies and cats. (Mice had enough sense to stay in hiding.)

With missiles, more missiles and outer-space "toyniks" the Christmas feature, many a moppet contrived a homemade capsule in which he tried to stuff a house pet.

(Another curtain lowering, please, to denote personal search for Aunt Jennie, Tillie the housemaid and Fido, last seen in orbit around the family's first aid kit.)

FRED ASTAIRE plays a scientist in a movie picturing destruction of the earth by atomic war. (We waited in vain for him to relieve the dreadful suspense by asking "Shall we dance?")

Ethel Merman and third husband have parted. He is airline tycoon, Bob Six, and it's possible the separation followed Ethel's complaint, "You up in your nice cool jet plane and me down here in a hot sell-out."

Now that Billy Martin has gone to Cincinnati in another league, after playing in New York, Kansas City, Detroit and Cleveland, he makes Stanley, the explorer, look like a busher. We expect Billy to step out of a line-up any day and greet a rescuer with "Dr. Livingston, I presume."

States leveling in fight to stop highway deaths would do well to follow Connecticut whose chief justice has notified all police and lower courts that they must forward detailed reports of what happens from arrest to a court verdict. Idea is to expose and stop scandal of light, if any, punishment of potential killers.

"Being no man to be prudish about sex if he can possibly be lewd, Mr. Axelrod leers with sophomoric enthusiasm. If he were in college the dean would reprove him. On Broadway he is among equals." Brooks Atkinson in review of "Good-bye Charlie." Brooks is retiring after 40 years as a critic and his fighting form shows a determination to retire undefeated.

A picnic "grove" for fans out in left field has been provided by Bill Veeck of the White Sox, for use before game time. Refreshments will be served, or the fans may bring box luncheons. How about a fish pond fully stocked in case of dull games?

Although the limestone of southern Indiana is the most widely known, because of its quality and because it is shipped all over the world, still limestone is one of the most common and widely distributed of rocks and is found in every state in the U. S.

Father, Dear Father . . .

Labor Experts Hint Steel Pact

By Victor Riesel

One of President Eisenhower's gifts was not ready for Christmas but he was told it would be along shortly. He was informed by his labor experts that they did not think there would be another steel strike.

Victor Riesel

Those men who advise the President on the industrial wars believe there will be a last minute settlement. They expect it to come some time between Jan. 13 and Jan. 26—probably in the last 48 hours of that two-week period.

This small band of highly informed and highly placed officials concede to themselves and their friends that they may be misinterpreting the subdued cues and nuances dropped by the labor and management leaders in recent secret conferences.

Some of these off-the-record parleys have been with Vice President Nixon. Others between Labor Secretary Mitchell, strike chief Dave McDonald and U.S. Steel Corp. head Roger Blough.

EQUALLY CONFIDENTIAL talks have been held in the past few days between Secretary of Commerce Fred Mueller, at least one of his right hand men and several of the steel corporations' leaders.

By pooling their collected interpretations of sudden smiles, frowns, and snatches of two-man talks on the way to and from these secret meetings, the White House circle now believes the following:

The government will offer both sides a face-saving formula. This will come in the form of a fully packaged recommendation by some federal official or board.

The proposal could come, for example, from the much respected Joseph Finnegan, head of the Federal Mediation Service.

Or it could come from a board made up of Finnegan, Mitchell and Mueller. Or two of them joined by a public figure, such as Dr. George Taylor, now chairman of the President's Taft-Hartley fact-finding board.

The principle is the same. It's just a matter of President Eisenhower deciding which combination will have the greatest impact. When it is set, the recommendation for a settlement will be made public. The government believes that both sides will then accept rather than face congressional action.

THE THINKING now among the men reporting to the President gives the union a package increase of 10 to 11 cents an hour a year.

The government also will recommend "relief" to the steel industry on work rules. This means the companies will make financial concessions and the union will yield somewhat on new efficiency methods.

Arbitration boards will be set up all over the lot to work these out and there will be new and special committee procedure created to speed up grievance machinery. This would enable the union to easily lodge its protests against a cut in the work force and, at the same time, give the companies the speed they want in making changes on the mill floors —and in knowing whether they can or cannot make certain changes.

There seems to be no doubt among the government officials that there will be an increase in the price of steel. They expect it to come within six months after the settlement.

The only questions are the size of the increase and the loudness of President Eisenhower's indignation.

THE REASONING of the White House circle follows this line: The union just doesn't want to pull its men out again because it might provoke Congress into passing tough new laws. The strike leaders have no doubt that their men will follow them in a new walkout.

Dave McDonald has no concern over the solidarity of his union or over the sources of funds with which to support a new strike. They have some five million dollars in a special kitty and AFL-CIO president George Meany has just directed every regional director to launch a new drive for funds.

The strike leaders believe that only Congress can sop them and they don't want to saddle labor with what an angry Capitol Hill could do.

On the other side the industry also fears Congress, which might be tempted to go in for a price-fixing as well as a wage-setting procedure.

In addition the steel people will be in a position of not settling with a union which has made its peace with the big copper, aluminum and can industries. This might not sit well with the public.

That's why the White House thinks there will be peace in our time here at home.

Things That Count

By Truman Twill

I am starting to think seriously about predictions of a massive economic break-through in the 1960's.

It is easy to get the impression that everything is going to be bigger and better in the decade dead ahead. That is what the soothsayers seem to be saying.

Most of us are in no position to quarrel with them. We can tell ourselves they do not know what they are talking about, but they can say the same thing about us—and we'd both be right.

Pending the proof of their predicting, however, I intend to sail into the '60s with broad reservations. Whatever pie in the sky awaits us all, I will give long odds that these things still will be true at the end of the '60's:

Most of the plumbing that householders cope with in the course of a year's time will continue to be of a nature that will make them believe there must be a better way to do this disagreeable but essential job;

Detroit will never convince itself that the U.S. public will buy cars that do not get bigger and fancier year by year—and in another 10 years the so-called "compacts" will have grown to be as large as the behemoths that spawned them;

Peace will continue to be as elusive in the next 10 years as it has been in the last 10 years and the last 100 years, because the kind of peace being pursued is a will-of-the-wisp, being nothing but a dream of universal amity that never can be translated into reality;

The problem of wild children running amuck in society and scaring the socks off their elders will continue to grow worse, because it still will not have been approached from the right direction, which is to give these children something better to do with their energy than to run wild;

The bugaboo of inflation, which has been a handy talking point for doing and not doing this, that and the other thing, will have withstood all the schemes for getting rid of it, because the fact will have continued to be that no one has enough courage to live with the atithesis of inflation, which is deflation;

Our big brains will be pursuing their lips and making noises of consternation about the physical unfitness of the rising generation, meanwhile patting their potted bellies, gulping their tranquilizer pills, munching candy between meals, guzzling laxatives and wishing they could touch the floor with their fingertips;

Farmers will continue to produce large agricultural surpluses that will plague the country and no one will have mustered the courage to explain that when other people do this they get rid of the surpluses for what they can get out of them, instead of paying producers subsidies to add still further to the excess supply;

The first and foremost motive of people who never have expended the thought to think if a better motive will be to resist Communism, when it should be obvious to them that the only way to resist Communism is to consign it to its proper place as an idea that went out of date soon after Americans invented mass consumption to make mass production feasible;

Institutions of higher learning will still be finding out the hard way that the only way to keep the football tail from wagging the academic dog is to make all football players be bona fide students, but the problem will become less difficult as professional football steals the semi-professional audience;

Television then as now will be cursed with a too-high premium on mediocrity, but its critics then as now will be only a handful of highbrows whose unrealistic standards will have no relationship to anything that ever existed, or ever could exist;

And taxpayers will still be grousing about the awful state of affairs, still oblivious to the fact they are only being asked to pay for the benefits they have been demanding and are not being taken to the cleaners by wastrels.

In short, the economic breakthrough, if it comes, will not make any difference in things that count.

Rockefeller's Future

By David Lawrence

Governor Seen As Man Of Political Destiny

Gov. Rockefeller never had a chance to win the 1960 nomination for the presidency on the Republican ticket but the same circumstances that put him out of the race this time could win the nomination for him in 1964 or 1968.

David Lawrence

For the New York governor gave the impression in speeches on his western tour recently that he was still disassociating himself from the Eisenhower administration. This may have been a tactic suited to the political conditions of November 1958, when there was a recession on and the Republican administration in Washington was not popular but it was the wrong tactic to pursue in the recovery year 1959.

The main issue, of course, of the 1960 campaign is sure to be approval or disapproval of the Eisenhower administration's record.

Vice President Nixon, on the other hand, has managed to create the image of a man closely identified in almost every respect with the incumbent administration. Gov. Rockefeller's advisers, many of whom are of the so-called "liberal" school, apparently thought the line would win some supporters especially Democrats but the latter don't constitute the majority of a Republican national convention and it's to the delegates at the convention rather than the electorate as a whole that a preconvention candidate must direct his appeal in public speeches.

THE COMING CAMPAIGN itself has to be fought on whether the record of the Eisenhower administration is to be approved or repudiated. Democrats will not be able to convince the country that Mr. Nixon isn't a symbol of the Eisenhower administration and indeed there will be little doubt on that score when the President himself gets out on the stump.

One can already hear him telling the voters that Dick Nixon is experienced in national governmental affairs, that he is familiar with every aspect of administration policy at home and abroad and that if the American people want continuity they can get it only by electing the Republican nominee.

For the president to say the same thing of Gov. Rockefeller, however, would have been difficult, especially since the latter had indicated in some of his recent speeches that he doesn't go along with the administration on certain policies.

Mr. Eisenhower, of course, has a natural pride in his own eight-year record and will wish to get a favorable verdict on that record from the American people.

If times are good, the voters will not wish to change administrations.

Continuity of foreign policy will be especially emphasized.

It will be recalled that last autumn the British people had almost the same issue before them — whether to continue the Macmillan administration in power. It was significant that, although the British Labor party has had a margin in numbers in previous elections, many eligible voters didn't go to the polls at all last time.

THE SAME THING is likely to happen in America. The voters who call themselves Democrats outnumber the Republicans by about seven or eight percentage points in the North but while many Democrats will not wish to vote the Republican ticket they will, in effect, be doing the same thing by staying at home on election day.

It's the stay - at - home, relatively contented, and in many instances indifferent Democratic voters who will help elect the Republican nominee.

If, however, economic conditions change between now and next November on the domestic front and the foreign situation takes a turn for the worse due to any mistakes the administration might make, the country would be in a mood to change administrations.

Under such circumstances it would not want a man who merely had expressed polite differences with the Eisenhower policies but would prefer a candidate who had presented himself as an articulate and vigorous opponent with a completely alternative program.

If, moreover, the Democrats should win in 1960, the way would be opened for Gov. Rockefeller to become the Republican presidential nominee in 1964, and he could at that time differ all he liked with the Eisenhower policies and make a campaign suitable to the then existing circumstances.

If Vice President Nixon is elected in 1960, he would become the logical nominee in 1964 to defend his record. Gov. Rockefeller's chance would thereupon come in 1968. He would be only 59 years old then and presumably would be more experienced in government, especially if he makes a good record in Albany and is re-elected governor in 1962 and 1966.

It will be recalled that Al Smith was chosen to be the Democratic presidential nominee after being elected governor of New York three times.

NELSON ROCKEFELLER has a big future in politics. He is an honest, independent - minded person of complete integrity. His congenial personality is in many respects like that of Dwight Eisenhower. 1960 simply isn't Gov. Rockefeller's year. He wisely recognized it and spoke out candidly in an excellent statement of support for the Republican party.

This was much better than engaging in a bitter contest that might have produced a costly split in his party.

The New York governor will gain in stature and prestige as he campaigns in 1960 in behalf of the Republican ticket. While he will be urged to accept the vice presidency, he is right in saying that the same reasons which impelled him not to become a candidate for first place argue against his acceptance of a draft for second place.

He is a man of political destiny, however, and some of his ideas may prove more popular even with Republicans in 1964 and 1968 than they are today.

Clearing The Air

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

There are two clear-cut results from New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's decision to step aside and leave Vice President Richard M. Nixon unopposed for the Republican presidential nomination.

1. The Democrats will be able to start their own campaign much earlier by concentrating their fire on Nixon right from the beginning of 1960.

2. The voters will be able next November to make a lot sharper distinction between Democrats and Republicans.

It's no news to say the Democrats dislike Nixon. He has been around a long time. They have had a lot of experience with him. They particularly dislike him for his campaign tactics in other years.

Some of them have maintained it would be easier to beat Nixon than Rockefeller in the presidential race. By this reasoning, if they opened up on Nixon before the convention, they might have made Rockefeller's nomination easier.

They no longer have that problem. Since Nixon seems to be the sure-shot Republican choice, the Democrats can start blasting him right away.

Since Nixon has been completely identified with the Eisenhower's administration, he can ill afford to be critical of it, either before he gets the nomination or afterward.

Rockefeller was critical of the administration a number of times in the past few months while still wondering whether to oppose Nixon. But he could afford to be. He wasn't attached to it.

Nixon—because of the role he played in the administration since 1953—can hardly afford, or so it seems now, to do anything more in the campaign than to promise more of the same.

This may, of course, be sufficient to win if Eisenhower by that time has managed to make the world a little more peaceful and the country is anxious to continue his policies.

Since Nixon appears destined to campaign with a theme song which goes like this—"If you liked Ike, you'll like me, too"—any Democratic fire aimed at Eisenhower's performance must hit Nixon also.

The Democrats, of course, will have to promise to do better and, what is of equal significance to voters trying to make up their minds, do it differently.

Thus they should be able to make a clearer distinction between Nixon and the Democratic candidate than between Rockefeller and the Democrat since Rockefeller, unlike Nixon, could be critical of Eisenhower.

Labor Experts Hint Steel Pact

By Victor Riesel

One of President Eisenhower's gifts was not ready for Christmas but he was told it would be along shortly. He was informed by his labor experts that they did not think there would be another steel strike.

Victor Riesel

Those men who advise the President on the industrial wars believe there will be a last minute settlement. They expect it to come some time between Jan. 13 and Jan. 26—probably in the last 48 hours of that two-week period.

This small band of highly informed and highly placed officials concede to themselves and their friends that they may be misinterpreting the subdued cues and nuances dropped by the labor and management leaders in recent secret conferences.

Some of these off-the-record parleys have been with Vice President Nixon. Others between Labor Secretary Mitchell, strike chief Dave McDonald and U.S. Steel Corp. head Roger Blough.

EQUALLY CONFIDENTIAL talks have been held in the past few days between Secretary of Commerce Fred Mueller, at least one of his right hand men and several of the steel corporations' leaders.

By pooling their collected interpretations of sudden smiles, frowns, and snatches of two-man talks on the way to and from these secret meetings, the White House circle now believes the following:

The government will offer both sides a face-saving formula. This will come in the form of a fully packaged recommendation by some federal official or board.

The proposal could come, for example, from the much respected Joseph Finnegan, head of the Federal Mediation Service.

Or it could come from a board made up of Finnegan, Mitchell and Mueller. Or two of them joined by a public figure, such as Dr. George Taylor, now chairman of the President's Taft-Hartley fact-finding board.

The principle is the same. It's just a matter of President Eisenhower deciding which combination will have the greatest impact. When it is set, the recommendation for a settlement will be made public. The government believes that both sides will then accept rather than face congressional action.

THE THINKING now among the men reporting to the President gives the union a package increase of 10 to 11 cents an hour a year.

The government also will recommend "relief" to the steel industry on work rules. This means the companies will make financial concessions and the union will yield somewhat on new efficiency methods.

Arbitration boards will be set up all over the lot to work these out and there will be new and special committee procedure created to speed up grievance machinery. This would enable the union to easily lodge its protests against a cut in the work force and, at the same time, give the companies the speed they want in making changes on the mill floors —and in knowing whether they can or cannot make certain changes.

There seems to be no doubt among the government officials that there will be an increase in the price of steel. They expect it to come within six months after the settlement.

The only questions are the size of the increase and the loudness of President Eisenhower's indignation.

THE REASONING of the White House circle follows this line: The union just doesn't want to pull its men out again because it might provoke Congress into passing tough new laws. The strike leaders have no doubt that their men will follow them in a new walkout.

Dave McDonald has no concern over the solidarity of his union or over the sources of funds with which to support a new strike. They have some five million dollars in a special kitty and AFL-CIO president George Meany has just directed every regional director to launch a new drive for funds.

The strike leaders believe that only Congress can sop them and they don't want to saddle labor with what an angry Capitol Hill could do.

On the other side the industry also fears Congress, which might be tempted to go in for a price-fixing as well as a wage-setting procedure.

In addition the steel people will be in a position of not settling with a union which has made its peace with the big copper, aluminum and can industries. This might not sit well with the public.

That's why the White House thinks there will be peace in our time here at home.

Things That Count

By Truman Twill

I am starting to think seriously about predictions of a massive economic break-through in the 1960's.

It is easy to get the impression that everything is going to be bigger and better in the decade dead ahead. That is what the soothsayers seem to be saying.

Most of us are in no position to quarrel with them. We can tell ourselves they do not know what they are talking about, but they can say the same thing about us—and we'd both be right.

Pending the proof of their predicting, however, I intend to sail into the '60s with broad reservations. Whatever pie in the sky awaits us all, I will give long odds that these things still will be true at the end of the '60's:

Most of the plumbing that householders cope with in the course of a year's time will continue to be of a nature that will make them believe there must be a better way to do this disagreeable but essential job;

Detroit will never convince itself that the U.S. public will buy cars that do not get bigger and fancier year by year—and in another 10 years the so-called "compacts" will have grown to be as large as the behemoths that spawned them;

Peace will continue to be as elusive in the next 10 years as it has been in the last 10 years and the last 100 years, because the kind of peace being pursued is a will-of-the-wisp, being nothing but a dream of universal amity that never can be translated into reality;

The problem of wild children running amuck in society and scaring the socks off their elders will continue to grow worse, because it still will not have been approached from the right direction, which is to give these children something better to do with their energy than to run wild;

The bugaboo of inflation, which has been a handy talking point for doing and not doing this, that and the other thing, will have withstood all the schemes for getting rid of it, because the fact will have continued to be that no one has enough courage to live with the atithesis of inflation, which is deflation;

Our big brains will be pursuing their lips and making noises of consternation about the physical unfitness of the rising generation, meanwhile patting their potted bellies, gulping their tranquilizer pills, munching candy between meals, guzzling laxatives and wishing they could touch the floor with their fingertips;

Farmers will continue to produce large agricultural surpluses that will plague the country and no one will have mustered the courage to explain that when other people do this they get rid of the surpluses for what they can get out of them, instead of paying producers subsidies to add still further to the excess supply;

The first and foremost motive of people who never have expended the thought to think if a better motive will be to resist Communism, when it should be obvious to them that the only way to resist Communism is to consign it to its proper place as an idea that went out of date soon after Americans invented mass consumption to make mass production feasible;

Institutions of higher learning will still be finding out the hard way that the only way to keep the football tail from wagging the academic dog is to make all football players be bona fide students, but the problem will become less difficult as professional football steals the semi-professional audience;

Television then as now will be cursed with a too-high premium on mediocrity, but its critics then as now will be only a handful of highbrows whose unrealistic standards will have no relationship to anything that ever existed, or ever could exist;

And taxpayers will still be grousing about the awful state of affairs, still oblivious to the fact they are only being asked to pay for the benefits they have been demanding and are not being taken to the cleaners by wastrels.

In short, the economic breakthrough, if it comes, will not make any difference in things that count.

Rockefeller's Future

By David Lawrence

Governor Seen As Man Of Political Destiny

Gov. Rockefeller never had a chance to win the 1960 nomination for the presidency on the Republican ticket but the same circumstances that put him out of the race this time could win the nomination for him in 1964 or 1968.

David Lawrence

For the New York governor gave the impression in speeches on his western tour recently that he was still disassociating himself from the Eisenhower administration. This may have been a tactic suited to the political conditions of November 1958, when there was a recession on and the Republican administration in Washington was not popular but it was the wrong tactic to pursue in the recovery year 1959.

The main issue, of course, of the 1960 campaign is sure to be approval or disapproval of the Eisenhower administration's record.

Vice President Nixon, on the other hand, has managed to create the image of a man closely identified in almost every respect with the incumbent administration. Gov. Rockefeller's advisers, many of whom are of the so-called "liberal" school, apparently thought the line would win some supporters especially Democrats but the latter don't constitute the majority of a Republican national convention and it's to the delegates at the convention rather than the electorate as a whole that a preconvention candidate must direct his appeal in public speeches.

THE COMING CAMPAIGN itself has to be fought on whether the record of the Eisenhower administration is to be approved or repudiated. Democrats will not be able to convince the country that Mr. Nixon isn't a symbol of the Eisenhower administration and indeed there will be little doubt on that score when the President himself gets out on the stump.

One can already hear him telling the voters that Dick Nixon is experienced in national governmental affairs, that he is familiar with every aspect of administration policy at home and abroad and that if the American people want continuity they can get it only by electing the Republican nominee.

For the president to say the same thing of Gov. Rockefeller, however, would have been difficult, especially since the latter had indicated in some of his recent speeches that he doesn't go along with the administration on certain policies.

Mr. Eisenhower, of course, has a natural pride in his own eight-year record and will wish to get a favorable verdict on that record from the American people.

If times are good, the voters will not wish to change administrations.

Continuity of foreign policy will be especially emphasized.

It will be recalled that last autumn the British people had almost the same issue before them — whether to continue the Macmillan administration in power. It was significant that, although the British Labor party has had a margin in numbers in previous elections, many eligible voters didn't go to the polls at all last time.

THE SAME THING is likely to happen in America. The voters who call themselves Democrats outnumber the Republicans by about seven or eight percentage points in the North but while many Democrats will not wish to vote the Republican ticket they will, in effect, be doing the same thing by staying at home on election day.

It's the stay - at - home, relatively contented, and in many instances indifferent Democratic voters who will help elect the Republican nominee.

If, however, economic conditions change between now and next November on the domestic front and the foreign situation takes a turn for the worse due to any mistakes the administration might make, the country would be in a mood to change administrations.

Under such circumstances it would not want a man who merely had expressed polite differences with the Eisenhower policies but would prefer a candidate who had presented himself as an articulate and vigorous opponent with a completely alternative program.

If, moreover, the Democrats should win in 1960, the way would be opened for Gov. Rockefeller to become the Republican presidential nominee in 1964, and he could at that time differ all he liked with the Eisenhower policies and make a campaign suitable to the then existing circumstances.

If Vice President Nixon is elected in 1960, he would become the logical nominee in 1964 to defend his record. Gov. Rockefeller's chance would thereupon come in 1968. He would be only 59 years old then and presumably would be more experienced in government, especially if he makes a good record in Albany and is re-elected governor in 1962 and 1966.

It will be recalled that Al Smith was chosen to be the Democratic presidential nominee after being elected governor of New York three times.

NELSON ROCKEFELLER has a big future in politics. He is an honest, independent - minded person of complete integrity. His congenial personality is in many respects like that of Dwight Eisenhower. 1960 simply isn't Gov. Rockefeller's year. He wisely recognized it and spoke out candidly in an excellent statement of support for the Republican party.

This was much better than engaging in a bitter contest that might have produced a costly split in his party.

The New York governor will gain in stature and prestige as he campaigns in 1960 in behalf of the Republican ticket. While he will be urged to accept the vice presidency, he is right in saying that the same reasons which impelled him not to become a candidate for first place argue against his acceptance of a draft for second place.

He is a man of political destiny, however, and some of his ideas may prove more popular even with Republicans in 1964 and 1968 than they are today.

Clearing The Air

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

There are two clear-cut results from New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's decision to step aside and leave Vice President Richard M. Nixon unopposed for the Republican presidential nomination.

1. The Democrats will be able to start their own campaign much earlier by concentrating their fire on Nixon right from the beginning of 1960.

2. The voters will be able next November to make a lot sharper distinction between Democrats and Republicans.

It's no news to say the Democrats dislike Nixon. He has been around a long time. They have had a lot of experience with him. They particularly dislike him for his campaign tactics in other years.

Some of them have maintained it would be easier to beat Nixon than Rockefeller in the presidential race. By this reasoning, if they opened up on Nixon before the convention, they might have made Rockefeller's nomination easier.

They no longer have that problem. Since Nixon seems to be the sure-shot Republican choice, the Democrats can start blasting him right away.

Since Nixon has been completely identified with the Eisenhower's administration, he can ill afford to be critical of it, either before he gets the nomination or afterward.

Rockefeller was critical of the administration a number of times in the past few months while still wondering whether to oppose Nixon. But he could afford to be. He wasn't attached to it.

Nixon—because of the role he played in the administration since 1953—can hardly afford, or so it seems now, to do anything more in the campaign than to promise more of the same.

This may, of course, be sufficient to win if Eisenhower by that time has managed to make the world a little more peaceful and the country is anxious to continue his policies.

Since Nixon appears destined to campaign with a theme song which goes like this—"If you liked Ike, you'll like me, too"—any Democratic fire aimed at Eisenhower's performance must hit Nixon also.

The Democrats, of course, will have to promise to do better and, what is of equal significance to voters trying to make up their minds, do it differently.

Thus they should be able to make a clearer distinction between Nixon and the Democratic candidate than between Rockefeller and the Democrat since Rockefeller, unlike Nixon, could be critical of Eisenhower.

Broken Glass Doesn't Justify Burglary Charge, Judge Rules

The fact a man is found near a freshly - broken window at the rear of a tavern doesn't justify a charge of attempted burglary, Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw ruled today, in effect, in dismissing charges against Jesse F. Kent, 730 Leonard St.

After a lengthy preliminary hearing, the judge ordered dismissal for lack of evidence in a case alleging Kent attempted to break into the rear of Gene's Bar on E. 6th St. early the morning of Dec. 19 with intent to steal.

The city's case against Kent was based on the testimony of three policemen who said Kent was arrested in Slygo Alley at the rear of the tavern within 4 minutes after a patrolman on foot beat heard the sound of shattering glass. Kent did not testify.

Commenting on the case afterward, the judge said that "the presumption is that he broke the glass, but from there you would have to presume that he intended to go into the building and then you would have to presume that he intended to steal something after he got inside."

Patrolman E. R. Furgason testified he was standing at 6th St. and St. Clair Ave. about 2:45 a. m. Dec. 19 when he heard a sound of shattering glass. Unable to tell exactly where the sound came from, he looked in two nearby alleys, he said. Meanwhile, he had encountered Capt. Robert H. Pyle and Patrolman Charles E. (Bill) Tice.

Patrolman Furgason said he went through Potters Alley to Slygo Alley — which parallels E. 6th St. — and found the broken window at the rear of the tavern. He said Kent was a few feet away, walking toward Broadway.

Furgason testified Kent declined to answer when police asked him what he was doing in the alley or if he had broken the window.

"He wouldn't even give his name," the officer testified.

Atty. George A. Aronson defended Kent in today's hearing and Assistant Solicitor Richard J. Clark appeared for the prosecution.

Tonight a million humans will have no place to sleep

In Hong Kong the lucky refugee youngsters may find a place to sleep in a hallway or on an open rooftop. In Calcutta, the haggard beggar woman may find rest in a dirty, crowded street. It's a staggering task merely to keep these people alive on an emergency basis, let alone improving their lot. But your own Faith's Religious Overseas Aid is doing more than its share to help. Why don't you give more than your share . . . now in this season of giving? Give now through your faith.

Incoming Mayor, 2 Others Receive Oaths

EAST PALESTINE — Mayor-elect Robert W. Harding and two veteran city officials — George Archibald, auditor, and Charles Gandy, treasurer — were given the oath of office Monday afternoon by City Solicitor Jack Cohen at the attorney's office.

Cohen, re-elected in November, will be given the oath Wednesday by Mayor Paul Merwin. Cohen, in turn, will administer the oath to all councilmen at the reorganization meeting next Monday night.

Broken Glass Doesn't Justify Burglary Charge, Judge Rules

The fact a man is found near a freshly - broken window at the rear of a tavern doesn't justify a charge of attempted burglary, Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw ruled today, in effect, in dismissing charges against Jesse F. Kent, 730 Leonard St.

After a lengthy preliminary hearing, the judge ordered dismissal for lack of evidence in a case alleging Kent attempted to break into the rear of Gene's Bar on E. 6th St. early the morning of Dec. 19 with intent to steal.

The city's case against Kent was based on the testimony of three policemen who said Kent was arrested in Slygo Alley at the rear of the tavern within 4 minutes after a patrolman on foot beat heard the sound of shattering glass. Kent did not testify.

Commenting on the case afterward, the judge said that "the presumption is that he broke the glass, but from there you would have to presume that he intended to go into the building and then you would have to presume that he intended to steal something after he got inside."

Patrolman E. R. Furgason testified he was standing at 6th St. and St. Clair Ave. about 2:45 a. m. Dec. 19 when he heard a sound of shattering glass. Unable to tell exactly where the sound came from, he looked in two nearby alleys, he said. Meanwhile, he had encountered Capt. Robert H. Pyle and Patrolman Charles E. (Bill) Tice.

Patrolman Furgason said he went through Potters Alley to Slygo Alley — which parallels E. 6th St. — and found the broken window at the rear of the tavern. He said Kent was a few feet away, walking toward Broadway.

Furgason testified Kent declined to answer when police asked him what he was doing in the alley or if he had broken the window.

"He wouldn't even give his name," the officer testified.

Atty. George A. Aronson defended Kent in today's hearing and Assistant Solicitor Richard J. Clark appeared for the prosecution.

He is formally charged with cashing a check at the Julius Goetz & Co. store, 460 Main St., Dec. 22. The amount was $37.84.

Police Chief A. J. Radeschi of East Liverpool said Morgan also will be charged with passing a bad check for $43 Dec. 22 on the J. C. Penney Co. store on E. 5th St. East Liverpool officers were notified of Morgan's arrest by Chief Hephner.

Formal charges will be filed here and arrangements will be made for Morgan's arraignment. Morgan probably will be taken into Municipal Court after he is arraigned at Lisbon, Chief Radeschi said.

Chief Hephner said Morgan also is wanted for cashing a bad check at a Carrollton store.

Morgan was picked up yesterday afternoon at the Moore Coal Co. between Salineville and Summitville, where he was employed as a laborer.

Police said he showed his driver's license for identification when cashing the check in Wellsville.

1st Republican Enters For Primaries In May

Foulks' filing confirmed an announcement of his candidacy made Dec. 1. The Christmas-New Year's holiday week has brought a virtual embargo on candidate filings, but political activity is expected to go into full swing again early in 1960, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the board, commented today.

New Officials Awaiting Oath

of January. The intent of the law apparently is that the retiring director will continue in office to help advise the new administration.

In the sweeping change at City Hall, Democrats will succeed Republicans in virtually every office.

Mayor Fred P. Lawrence, incumbent Republican, will wind up his tenure officially at midnight Thursday, but his safety - service director, Joseph F. Ross, will continue iin office to help the new administration familiarize itself with projects that have been under way for some time — for instance, the California Hollow-West End freeway and relocation of the Carpenters Run sanitary sewer line.

Other new officials beginning terms Friday, all Democrats, will be:

Council President Charles N. Edwards; Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate, and Councilmen Donald S. Hancock, John A. Melvin, Clinton R. Seevers, Clifford J. Cooper, John F. Kelly, Donald E. Smith and Robert B. Laughlin.

Municipal Judge-elect Samuel M. Chertoff and his four - member staff will participate in the New Year's ceremony.

The new judge, who already has taken the oath of office, will swear in his staff.

The court appointees include Mrs. Hillis Stuart of Wyoming Ave., Pleasant Heights, who will become deputy clerk and court reporter. Her appointment was announced today.

Appointment of others on the staff was announced several weeks ago. They are: Miss Lillian Sablack, deputy clerk; Wilbur Harmon, clerk, and Wilbert Taylor, bailiff.

Mrs. Stuart, a stenotypist, will be available at all times to make a record of court proceedings, the judge-elect pointed out. The court has not had an official reporter since the death of Mrs. Mary Toland several years ago, although stenographers were called iin on special occasions to record testimony.

Mrs. Stuart was employed until a few months ago as a stenographer and court reporter in the Summit County Probate Court at Akron, the new judge explained.

The retiring judge is George L. Brokaw, who has served on the bench 10 years. Retiring members of the court staff include Bailiff O. Earl Greenawalt, Clerk Harold L. Powell and Mrs. Jean Saucer and Mrs. Mary Wolfe, deputy clerks.

The new judge will be the first on the Municipal Court bench to benefit from a new law enacted by the State Legislature at the last session, boosting the annual salary to $8,500. The law fixes the basic pay of all Ohio Municipal Court judges at $7,500, plus an additional allowance based on population of the area he serves. In the local court's case, the allowance for population is $1,000, raising the total pay to $8,500.

The present judge draws about $6,900. Although the new law took effect Nov. 2, Judge Brokaw could not collect the higher pay because of the prohibition against revising an elective officials's salary during a term.

Mayor-elect Goodballet said a crowd is expected at the ceremonies Friday, including guests and families and friends of the new officials. He said two of the new councilmen, Hancock and Smith, probably will be unable to attend because they are scheduled to be at work at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

However, no official's right to serve will be effected, as all the successful candidates took the oath of office shortly after the November general election.

Edwards succeeds B. E. Warner as Council president and Applegate succeeds H. J. Gallimore as city auditor. The only Democrat starting a new term is Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper.

Hancock, Melvin and Seevers, as councilmen - at - large, replace George E. Willshaw, Robert W. Sample Jr. and A. Stanley Kidder. Cooper replaces H. A. Tullis in the First Ward; Kelly succeeds William Y. Orr in the Second; Smith replaces W. E. Kaiser in the Third and Laughlin succeeds Samuel B. Webber in the Fourth.

The new Council will organize for the biennium at its first regular meeting next Monday night, according to tentative plans listed by President-elect Edwards.

Council expects to caucus at 7:30 and start its regular meeting at 8, as has been the custom for several years, Edwards said.

The organization meeting will include adoption of rules and election of a president pro tem, who presides in the absence of the president.

Edwards said he is not certain that some of the other usual business of an organization meeting will be taken up at the session Monday, including election of a clerk and assistant clerk and announcement of committee personnel.

Clerk Ray Goodman, who has served for 12 years, announced in mid-November he would not seek reappointment when the new Council took office. Mrs. Edna Sweeney, also secretary of the Civil Defense Council, is assistant Council clerk.

4 Students Bound For Rose Bowl Tilt Killed In Crash

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Four University of Washington students, bound for the Rose Bowl football game at Pasadena, Calif., died early today in a crash on a icy, foggy highway.

Their automobile slammed into a tank truck and trailer that had jackknifed into the wrong lane on two-lane U. S. 99, five miles north of here.

A fifth occupant of the car was brought to a hospital here with serious injuries.

The dead: Derwood Burr Nordin, 23; Myra Lee Taylor, 21; Evelyn Joy Simmons, 20; and William Robert Moser, 22.

Seriously injured was Barbara Jean Hill, 21.

Patrolman Allan Lindley said the truck and trailer, driven by Ernest Albert Rice Jr., 35, slowed when a car ahead of it braked.

Lindley said the driver told him that as soon as he applied his brakes the big rig began to skid and the trailer swung around into the southbound lane.

Lab Test Ordered In Chemist Death

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Konrad Walter Hubele kept an appointment book. In it, he detailed in diary form how he treated himself for a terrible disease, multiple sclerosis.

But the book did not hint at his early appointment with death. And, after two days, authorities still have not determined just why the 28-year-old biochemist died.

Hubele, a Caltech graduate student from Germany, was found dead Sunday in his car, parked in freezing temperatures outside a mountain cabin in Angles National Forest. The book lay beside him.

There was no indication of suicide and sheriff's deputies thought he might have frozen to death. An autopsy Monday did not show whether this was the case or whether he might have died of an over-injection of medicine.

The coroner's office has ordered a laboratory examination of vital organs.

Hubele's book showed he had been injecting himself with histamine diphosphate, a commercial medication.

of January. The intent of the law apparently is that the retiring director will continue in office to help advise the new administration.

In the sweeping change at City Hall, Democrats will succeed Republicans in virtually every office.

Mayor Fred P. Lawrence, incumbent Republican, will wind up his tenure officially at midnight Thursday, but his safety - service director, Joseph F. Ross, will continue iin office to help the new administration familiarize itself with projects that have been under way for some time — for instance, the California Hollow-West End freeway and relocation of the Carpenters Run sanitary sewer line.

Other new officials beginning terms Friday, all Democrats, will be:

Council President Charles N. Edwards; Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate, and Councilmen Donald S. Hancock, John A. Melvin, Clinton R. Seevers, Clifford J. Cooper, John F. Kelly, Donald E. Smith and Robert B. Laughlin.

Municipal Judge-elect Samuel M. Chertoff and his four - member staff will participate in the New Year's ceremony.

The new judge, who already has taken the oath of office, will swear in his staff.

The court appointees include Mrs. Hillis Stuart of Wyoming Ave., Pleasant Heights, who will become deputy clerk and court reporter. Her appointment was announced today.

Appointment of others on the staff was announced several weeks ago. They are: Miss Lillian Sablack, deputy clerk; Wilbur Harmon, clerk, and Wilbert Taylor, bailiff.

Mrs. Stuart, a stenotypist, will be available at all times to make a record of court proceedings, the judge-elect pointed out. The court has not had an official reporter since the death of Mrs. Mary Toland several years ago, although stenographers were called iin on special occasions to record testimony.

Mrs. Stuart was employed until a few months ago as a stenographer and court reporter in the Summit County Probate Court at Akron, the new judge explained.

The retiring judge is George L. Brokaw, who has served on the bench 10 years. Retiring members of the court staff include Bailiff O. Earl Greenawalt, Clerk Harold L. Powell and Mrs. Jean Saucer and Mrs. Mary Wolfe, deputy clerks.

The new judge will be the first on the Municipal Court bench to benefit from a new law enacted by the State Legislature at the last session, boosting the annual salary to $8,500. The law fixes the basic pay of all Ohio Municipal Court judges at $7,500, plus an additional allowance based on population of the area he serves. In the local court's case, the allowance for population is $1,000, raising the total pay to $8,500.

The present judge draws about $6,900. Although the new law took effect Nov. 2, Judge Brokaw could not collect the higher pay because of the prohibition against revising an elective officials's salary during a term.

Mayor-elect Goodballet said a crowd is expected at the ceremonies Friday, including guests and families and friends of the new officials. He said two of the new councilmen, Hancock and Smith, probably will be unable to attend because they are scheduled to be at work at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

However, no official's right to serve will be effected, as all the successful candidates took the oath of office shortly after the November general election.

Edwards succeeds B. E. Warner as Council president and Applegate succeeds H. J. Gallimore as city auditor. The only Democrat starting a new term is Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper.

Hancock, Melvin and Seevers, as councilmen - at - large, replace George E. Willshaw, Robert W. Sample Jr. and A. Stanley Kidder. Cooper replaces H. A. Tullis in the First Ward; Kelly succeeds William Y. Orr in the Second; Smith replaces W. E. Kaiser in the Third and Laughlin succeeds Samuel B. Webber in the Fourth.

The new Council will organize for the biennium at its first regular meeting next Monday night, according to tentative plans listed by President-elect Edwards.

Council expects to caucus at 7:30 and start its regular meeting at 8, as has been the custom for several years, Edwards said.

The organization meeting will include adoption of rules and election of a president pro tem, who presides in the absence of the president.

Edwards said he is not certain that some of the other usual business of an organization meeting will be taken up at the session Monday, including election of a clerk and assistant clerk and announcement of committee personnel.

Clerk Ray Goodman, who has served for 12 years, announced in mid-November he would not seek reappointment when the new Council took office. Mrs. Edna Sweeney, also secretary of the Civil Defense Council, is assistant Council clerk.

4 Students Bound For Rose Bowl Tilt Killed In Crash

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Four University of Washington students, bound for the Rose Bowl football game at Pasadena, Calif., died early today in a crash on a icy, foggy highway.

Their automobile slammed into a tank truck and trailer that had jackknifed into the wrong lane on two-lane U. S. 99, five miles north of here.

A fifth occupant of the car was brought to a hospital here with serious injuries.

The dead: Derwood Burr Nordin, 23; Myra Lee Taylor, 21; Evelyn Joy Simmons, 20; and William Robert Moser, 22.

Lab Test Ordered In Chemist Death

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Konrad Walter Hubele kept an appointment book. In it, he detailed in diary form how he treated himself for a terrible disease, multiple sclerosis.

But the book did not hint at his early appointment with death. And, after two days, authorities still have not determined just why the 28-year-old biochemist died.

Hubele, a Caltech graduate student from Germany, was found dead Sunday in his car, parked in freezing temperatures outside a mountain cabin in Angles National Forest. The book lay beside him.

There was no indication of suicide and sheriff's deputies thought he might have frozen to death. An autopsy Monday did not show whether this was the case or whether he might have died of an over-injection of medicine.

The coroner's office has ordered a laboratory examination of vital organs.

Hubele's book showed he had been injecting himself with histamine diphosphate, a commercial medication.

Democrats Get Council Wheel At Wellsville

Wellsville's new City Council, which is predominantly Democratic, will hold its first regular meeting Tuesday, Jan. 5, at 8 p.m.

The new Council is exactly opposite — partywise — to the retiring group, which is governed by six Republicans.

Council is headed by Mrs. Mary C. Rahter, a Democrat and former Council president, who defeated Republican incumbent Myron (Mike) Weis at the November general election. She is owner of Rahter's Wallpaper Store and served as Council president in 1956-57.

Other retiring members of Council are Ancel Moore, First Ward; J. Frederick Russell, Second Ward; Robert Runyon, Third Ward; Richard Brown, Fourth Ward, and Dominick Dash, at-large. All are Republicans except Dash, who declined to run again.

The two holdovers are Paul (Mike) Nelson and Robert Taggart, both at-large members. Nelson is a Republican and Taggart is a Democrat. Nelson is a salesman for the Smith & Phillips Co. while Taggart is an employe of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

The other Republican on the new Council, aside from Nelson, will be Aguin Bowling, First Ward. Bowling, a newcomer to politics, resides at 421 Broadway and is employed at Crucible.

Second Ward Councilman is Clarence T. Cartwright, Democratic newcomer, who resides at 930 Appian Way.

Donald E. Miller, 496 14th St., is Third Ward councilman. A millworker, he formerly served on council. He is a Democrat.

William R. Stroble, another Democratic newcomer, is Fourth Ward councilman. He is an employe of Crucible.

Wilmer B. Ralston, a Democrat, is the third councilman-at-large. He resides at 1712 Clark Ave. and is an employe of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

One of the first tasks Council faces is selecting a new clerk. Paul Ice, 1762 Clark Ave., presently is filling the job. A Republican, he was named to replace Charles W. Stewart, who resigned to become city treasurer.

All other city officials are Republicans. They include Mayor William J. Shoub, who was re-elected for a fourth term; Treasurer Stewart; Auditor Edgar S. Davidson, and Solicitor William Bush. William S. Robinson is the safety-service director.

Rosenbaum Company To Close At Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Rosenbaum Co., Pittsburgh's second oldest department store, will close at the conclusion of a current sale, President Richard Jack announced Monday.

The store was founded 93 years ago by Max Rosenbaum and Solomon Fleischman. It became part of National Department Stores and later was taken over by the International Mining Corp.

The Rosenbaum Co. is the third department store to close in Pittsburgh in less than two years. Boggs & Buhl, an 89-year-old landmark, closed in February 1958. Frank & Seder went out of business a year ago.

Hearing Is Waived

CINCINNATI (AP)—Robert D. Perry, who police say posed as Attorney J. George Murray of Mansfield and sent bills to widows in the Cincinnati area, has waived a hearing on a federal charge of mail fraud. Perry, 35, was held in $2,500 bond Monday by U. S. Commissioner Graham Hunt Jr.

AWAIT ROSE BOWL PARADE. Here's the 144-member Weirton High School band that will participate in the Tournament of Roses Parade New Year's Day at Pasadena, Calif. Directed by two Chester men, Charles E. McKinney and Dale Lutton, the band was scheduled to present a concert and parade today in Disneyland. The 12 majorettes and a small instrumental group will perform at the Los Angeles Breakfast Club Thursday, where Vice President Richard M. Nixon will be an honored guest. The band left for the West Coast by air Sunday and will return to Weirton Jan. 2. Besides performing in the Tournament of Roses parade, which will be televised, the band will be featured on two network pre-parade shows. The ABC network preview with Ronald Regan was filmed in Weirton by a Hollywood crew early this month. The NBC preview is to be live from Pasadena and will star Roy Rogers, Dale Evans and Dennis Day. These shows are to be 30 minutes before the parade. Band members, their families and boosters raised $46,080 for the trip.

3 Million Placed In Trust Fund Under Haas Will

CLEVELAND (AP)—More than three million dollars has been placed in a trust fund under the will of Samuel T. Haas to be used for charitable purposes.

Haas, an attorney who made a fortune in real estate investment, died a week ago of cancer at 72. His total estate is estimated conservatively by the executors at upward of four million dollars.

While Haas expressed a wish some trust funds be used for medical research and scholarships, he did not so direct. Instead he left to six directors the decision on how to spend the money, giving only this guidance:

"I wish to have the bulk of my estate devoted to the assistance and uplifting of the unfortunate, the amelioration of the sufferings of the afflicted and the encouragement, improvement and betterment of mankind."

In addition to the charitable trust fund, Haas bequeathed smaller amounts, including one of $25,000 to Russell W. Jelliffe and his wife, Rowena, who founded Karamu House, an interracial cultural center and settlement house. The house was willed $50,000.

"This is the most astounding thing I ever heard of," said Jelliffe. "I had never had any indication of his interest in Karamu. I don't remember even what he looked like."

U.S. Combine Gets Pact To Build Soviet Plant

MOSCOW (AP) — An American combine has won a 30-million-dollar "cash on the barrel head" contract to build a textile plant for the Soviet government. It is the biggest deal private American business has made with the Soviets since World War II.

The plant—to be built at Kalinin outside Moscow — will be the largest of its kind built in recent years, said a spokesman for Intertex International Inc. of New York City.

He said the Americans won out over a British combine which offered to build the plant 20 to 30 per cent cheaper on three to five-year credit.

Sidney Scheurer of Intertex International directed negotiations for the American combine which is made up of 40 firms.

Girl Has Only Leash, Aching Heart In Long Hunt For Dog

ST. THOMAS, Ont. (AP) — An exhausted 17-year-old girl came back from Detroit Monday night with only a leash and an aching heart to show for her grueling search for her lost dog.

Judy Ferren's German Shepherd, Jinty, remained lost.

Judy arrived in New York last week from her home in Southampton, England, bringing her year-old dog with her. Gladys Ferren, the girl's mother, met her and they started on the train to Mrs. Ferren's home here.

Judy rode with Jinty in the baggage car from New York to Buffalo. There they changed to a train for St. Thomas that lacked a baggage car. Jinty rode in a baggage car to Detroit and was to be transferred to a train that would take her to St. Thomas in time for Christmas.

But Jinty bolted the car when the door was opened and disappeared in the New York Central yards in Detroit.

Judy told her mother, "If I could only get to Detroit. Jinty would know my voice if she heard it and would come to me. She won't come if anyone else calls her."

So Judy got up early Sunday morning and hitchhiked 114 miles to Detroit. She told her mother by telephone she had a dollar and would live on hamburgers until she found Jinty.

But despite help from railroad officials and long hours wandering through the foggy New York Central yards and around the depot, no dog answered her calls.

An NYC official bought her a ticket home late Monday.

Navy Scientists Planning 7-Mile Descent In Pacific

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Navy underwater research scientists plan a bathyscaph descent nearly seven miles into the Pacific in January or February.

Spokesmen here and in Washington, disclosing this Monday, emphasized that underwater research is the main goal of the dive but that it could beat the world's record dive of 18,600 feet, made last Nov. 15.

In the cigar-shaped chamber then were Jacques Piccard, adviser to the Navy Electronics Laboratory; and Andreas B. Rechnitzer, head of the project for the Navy.

Again the site will be in the Marianas Trench, about 200 miles southwest of Guam. It's considered the ocean's deepest zone.

Canada has the greatest railway mileage per capita.

Man Slays Wife, Wounds His Son, Then Kills Self

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — A man fatally shot his wife this morning and wounded his son in the arm. Then after standing off police for about a half-hour, he shot and killed himself, police reported.

Dead are Anthony Dinardo, 61, and his wife, Josephine, 51. In fair condition at Youngstown Southside Hospital is their son, James or Gena, 29.

Police were called to the Nidardo apartment at about 5:30 a.m. about a dozen officers tried to flush Dinardo out before he shot himself, police said.

The three Dinardos lived separately, and the husband and wife reportedly had been feuding over a long period of time.

Immediate cause of the shooting was not known.

Hospital sources said Mrs. Dinardo was shot three times in the chest.

The younger Dinardo received a bullet wound in the arm when he went to the apartment ahead of police to try to get his father to come out.

B & O Plans To Cut Fares

BALTIMORE (AP) — Passengers on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad will find round-trip coach fares between major eastern cities and the Midwest cheaper after Jan. 5.

Railroad officials announced Monday that the fare cuts will range from 21 to 33 per cent. They will be equivalent to rates previously put into effect on an experimental basis on other sections of the system.

The round-trip reductions will apply to fares between Baltimore, Washington and Pittsburgh and Cleveland, Detroit and Chicago and intermediate points.

The new rates will be applicable on the Columbian, Ambassador, Shenandoah and other trains running over the Baltimore-Washington-Chicago route. Tickets at the lower rate also will be sold to and from Cleveland, Detroit and Wheeling, officials said.

The reduction also will apply to round-trip fares on slumber coaches, which offer private sleeping accommodations at coach fares plus a small space charge.

The new round-trip fare between Baltimore and Chicago will be $38.10, a saving of $10.50 from the existing rate.

One Of Leading War Criminals Dies In Madrid

MADRID, Spain (AP) — Dr. Ante Pavelic, 70, quisling president of Croatia during World War II and one of the leading war criminals still at large, died Monday in the German hospital here. He was 70.

The death was reported by Madrid newspapers and confirmed by the municipal funeral service, which said it had taken the body to the morgue of San Iisdro Cemetery. It declined to say when funeral services would be held.

Pavelic was wanted by President Tito's Yugoslav government for trial on charges that he was responsible for the killing of 700,000 Serbs and Jews during his 3½ years as the Axis viceroy.

He fled Yugoslavia in May 1945, and turned up in Argentina later in the year.

He was wounded in an assassination attempt in April 1957 which he blamed on agents of Tito. A short time later, Argentina agreed to consider a Yugoslav extradition request and Pavelic fled again.

Long before World War II, Pavelic was sought in half a dozen countries for terrorist plots and political assassinations, including those of King Alexander of Yugoslavia and French Foreign Minister Louis Barthou in 1934.

3 Million Placed In Trust Fund Under Haas Will

CLEVELAND (AP)—More than three million dollars has been placed in a trust fund under the will of Samuel T. Haas to be used for charitable purposes.

Haas, an attorney who made a fortune in real estate investment, died a week ago of cancer at 72. His total estate is estimated conservatively by the executors at upward of four million dollars.

While Haas expressed a wish some trust funds be used for medical research and scholarships, he did not so direct. Instead he left to six directors the decision on how to spend the money, giving only this guidance:

"I wish to have the bulk of my estate devoted to the assistance and uplifting of the unfortunate, the amelioration of the sufferings of the afflicted and the encouragement, improvement and betterment of mankind."

In addition to the charitable trust fund, Haas bequeathed smaller amounts, including one of $25,000 to Russell W. Jelliffe and his wife, Rowena, who founded Karamu House, an interracial cultural center and settlement house. The house was willed $50,000.

"This is the most astounding thing I ever heard of," said Jelliffe. "I had never had any indication of his interest in Karamu. I don't remember even what he looked like."

U.S. Combine Gets Pact To Build Soviet Plant

MOSCOW (AP) — An American combine has won a 30-million-dollar "cash on the barrel head" contract to build a textile plant for the Soviet government. It is the biggest deal private American business has made with the Soviets since World War II.

The plant—to be built at Kalinin outside Moscow — will be the largest of its kind built in recent years, said a spokesman for Intertex International Inc. of New York City.

He said the Americans won out over a British combine which offered to build the plant 20 to 30 per cent cheaper on three to five-year credit.

Sidney Scheurer of Intertex International directed negotiations for the American combine which is made up of 40 firms.

Girl Has Only Leash, Aching Heart In Long Hunt For Dog

ST. THOMAS, Ont. (AP) — An exhausted 17-year-old girl came back from Detroit Monday night with only a leash and an aching heart to show for her grueling search for her lost dog.

Judy Ferren's German Shepherd, Jinty, remained lost.

Judy arrived in New York last week from her home in Southampton, England, bringing her year-old dog with her. Gladys Ferren, the girl's mother, met her and they started on the train to Mrs. Ferren's home here.

Judy rode with Jinty in the baggage car from New York to Buffalo. There they changed to a train for St. Thomas that lacked a baggage car. Jinty rode in a baggage car to Detroit and was to be transferred to a train that would take her to St. Thomas in time for Christmas.

But Jinty bolted the car when the door was opened and disappeared in the New York Central yards in Detroit.

Judy told her mother, "If I could only get to Detroit. Jinty would know my voice if she heard it and would come to me. She won't come if anyone else calls her."

So Judy got up early Sunday morning and hitchhiked 114 miles to Detroit. She told her mother by telephone she had a dollar and would live on hamburgers until she found Jinty.

But despite help from railroad officials and long hours wandering through the foggy New York Central yards and around the depot, no dog answered her calls.

An NYC official bought her a ticket home late Monday.

Navy Scientists Planning 7-Mile Descent In Pacific

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Navy underwater research scientists plan a bathyscaph descent nearly seven miles into the Pacific in January or February.

Spokesmen here and in Washington, disclosing this Monday, emphasized that underwater research is the main goal of the dive but that it could beat the world's record dive of 18,600 feet, made last Nov. 15.

In the cigar-shaped chamber then were Jacques Piccard, adviser to the Navy Electronics Laboratory; and Andreas B. Rechnitzer, head of the project for the Navy.

Again the site will be in the Marianas Trench, about 200 miles southwest of Guam. It's considered the ocean's deepest zone.

Canada has the greatest railway mileage per capita.

Man Slays Wife, Wounds His Son, Then Kills Self

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — A man fatally shot his wife this morning and wounded his son in the arm. Then after standing off police for about a half-hour, he shot and killed himself, police reported.

Dead are Anthony Dinardo, 61, and his wife, Josephine, 51. In fair condition at Youngstown Southside Hospital is their son, James or Gena, 29.

Police were called to the Nidardo apartment at about 5:30 a.m. about a dozen officers tried to flush Dinardo out before he shot himself, police said.

The three Dinardos lived separately, and the husband and wife reportedly had been feuding over a long period of time.

Immediate cause of the shooting was not known.

Hospital sources said Mrs. Dinardo was shot three times in the chest.

The younger Dinardo received a bullet wound in the arm when he went to the apartment ahead of police to try to get his father to come out.

B & O Plans To Cut Fares

BALTIMORE (AP) — Passengers on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad will find round-trip coach fares between major eastern cities and the Midwest cheaper after Jan. 5.

Railroad officials announced Monday that the fare cuts will range from 21 to 33 per cent. They will be equivalent to rates previously put into effect on an experimental basis on other sections of the system.

The round-trip reductions will apply to fares between Baltimore, Washington and Pittsburgh and Cleveland, Detroit and Chicago and intermediate points.

The new rates will be applicable on the Columbian, Ambassador, Shenandoah and other trains running over the Baltimore-Washington-Chicago route. Tickets at the lower rate also will be sold to and from Cleveland, Detroit and Wheeling, officials said.

The reduction also will apply to round-trip fares on slumber coaches, which offer private sleeping accommodations at coach fares plus a small space charge.

The new round-trip fare between Baltimore and Chicago will be $38.10, a saving of $10.50 from the existing rate.

One Of Leading War Criminals Dies In Madrid

MADRID, Spain (AP) — Dr. Ante Pavelic, 70, quisling president of Croatia during World War II and one of the leading war criminals still at large, died Monday in the German hospital here. He was 70.

The death was reported by Madrid newspapers and confirmed by the municipal funeral service, which said it had taken the body to the morgue of San Iisdro Cemetery. It declined to say when funeral services would be held.

Pavelic was wanted by President Tito's Yugoslav government for trial on charges that he was responsible for the killing of 700,000 Serbs and Jews during his 3½ years as the Axis viceroy.

He fled Yugoslavia in May 1945, and turned up in Argentina later in the year.

He was wounded in an assassination attempt in April 1957 which he blamed on agents of Tito. A short time later, Argentina agreed to consider a Yugoslav extradition request and Pavelic fled again.

Long before World War II, Pavelic was sought in half a dozen countries for terrorist plots and political assassinations, including those of King Alexander of Yugoslavia and French Foreign Minister Louis Barthou in 1934.

Paroles Approved For Two In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Paroles have been approved for two persons sentenced to prison for killings that resulted from domestic quarrels.

The Pardon and Parole Commission said today that Bertha Dilley, 58, will be paroled Jan. 28 from the women's reformatory at Marysville, and Antonio Ramos, 31, on Feb. 25 from Marion Correctional Institution. Both were convicted for first-degree manslaughter. Ramos is to be returned to Puerto Rico.

Mrs. Dilley was received Feb. 8, 1957, for the shotgun slaying of her husband, George, following a quarrel over the amount of work she was doing on their 30-acre Lawrence County farm.

Ramos shot and killed 14-year-old Carolyn Walters while arguing with her mother, who was his landlady in Painesville. Authorities said he had been asked to leave and, unfamiliar with the language, may have thought the family intended to harm him. He was received Jan. 23, 1959.

Both Columbus residents posted bond of $1,000 each following the action by the Franklin County Grand Jury.

Mrs. Nagle was in charge of the liquidation fund until her suspension last spring. Dziamba was acting superintendent of the division from October, 1955 to January, 1957.

The indictments charged the two embezzled money from a special fund collected by the state from building and loan associations in liquidation. A state audit showed $425,415 had been spent illegally from the fund in 13 years.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and Andrew G. Putka, building and loan superintendent, ordered the audit after they discovered existence of the fund last January.

Wellsville Gets Lone Bid For Sale Of House

The Wellsville Board of Control Monday received a lone bid on the sale of a house on Danbury Ave. near the McQueens Run pondage area.

The bid of $817 was submitted by Atty. Delmar T. O'Hara in the interests of a client, whose name was not given.

The board has taken the bid under advisement. The city had to purchase the home last summer because the cellar flooded when water backed up into the pondage part of the flood protection system.

If sold, the city will hold a perpetual easement on the premises to flood them to any level found necessary during water impounding operations. The easement also will clear the city of any damages or loss suffered by the owner as the result of flooding.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Why doesn't a mother love one child as much as another? I am not jealous of my brother Jimmy. I just want my mother to love me as much as she loves him.

I am 11 years old. Jimmy is 9. When he does something wrong she says, "Don't, honey." When I do something wrong, I get a slap.

I heard Mama tell a neighbor that Jimmy is her sunshine. She said, "Margie is harder to handle; but then girls are, I guess."

Shall I tell her I heard what she said and ask how I can change so she'll love me, too? She reads you to Daddy every day so I know she'll see this letter if you print it. What is your advice to me?—MARGIE.

Dear Margie: Brothers and sisters are always running a contest for their parents' affection, so don't be too unhappy, honey. I'm sure your mother loves you as much as Jimmy but in a different way and for different reasons.

If Mother doesn't read the column to Daddy today, remind her.

Wandering Boy

Dear Ann: I'm 20 and the mother of a 5-month-old baby. We were married 18 months ago and it all seemed so perfect but now we're having trouble.

My husband started to stay out late three months before the baby came. He says he plays cards with the boys but I know he's lying because I find lipstick and powder marks on his clothes, also bobby pins in his pockets and phone numbers.

I've never been untrue to him but when I think of the way he's behaving I have a strong urge to give him a dose of his own medicine. I have no intentions of doing anything wrong but maybe if he thought someone else was interested in me he'd straighten around.

I'm a good-looking girl, have my figure back and wouldn't have any trouble getting a date or two. I repeat, I don't want to do anything wrong, I just want to scare him a little. Do you think it would work?—RHONDA.

Dear Rhonda: If you're looking for an excuse to bum around you've got it. But where do you think this adolescent behavior will get you?

You're a mother now and the high school technique of getting a fellow re-interested by letting him know he isn't the only whale in the pail, won't work now.

Tell that wandering boy of yours he's a grown-up man now with adult-size responsibilities and that you won't stand for any more night prowling. A visit to the clergyman who tied the knot could put the whole thing in its proper perspective.

Backs Up Teacher

Dear Ann: My 17-year-old son is an excellent student and an avid reader. Ever since he was old enough to hold a book he has been devouring them.

Lately he's been bringing home books from the library on sex, also French novels and that certain book which I shall not name but it's one the postmaster said was "filthy."

My husband and I were at a loss so we phoned his English teacher who said, "The boy is doing well in school. He's mature and has enormous general knowledge because of his extensive reading. Anything he gets in the public library is okay. Let him alone."

We peeked at that certain book and we were shocked. Do you think the teacher gave us good advice?—CONCERNED PARENTS.

-:-

Dear Parents: I back up the teacher in this instance—all the way.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

No Charges Filed Against Nine Workers

ALBERT LEA, Minn. (AP)—No charges are being filed against nine non-union workers in whose cars weapons were found as they arrived to reopen the Wilson & Co. meat packing plant here Monday.

The workers were held in jail until O. Russell Olson, Freeborn County attorney, ruled Monday night that they could not be charged with contempt because they had not been officially served with a district court order barring firearms near the plant.

The nine were jailed after National Guardsmen under direction of Sheriff Everette Stovern discovered the guns during inspection of the cars of 200 workers entering the plant.

"I have decided the benefit of doubt must be given these men and no statutory criminal action will therefore be taken," Olson said. He warned future violations would bring action.

Other than the finding of the weapons, the reopening was without incident. It marked first slaughtering done at the plant since martial law was declared Dec. 11 in the wake of violence between United Packinghouse Workers pickets and 500 non-union workers Wilson had been using.

A federal court ruled last week that closing of the plant under the martial law edict was illegal. The union has been on strike since Nov. 3.

Negotiations seeking to resolve differences between Wilson and the union were resumed today in Chicago.

Student From Ghana Hurls Challenge At Conference

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—The prize: African allegiance. The price: Respecting Africans as human beings of dignity.

Students from around the world who are meeting here heard that challenge by a student from Ghana Monday.

In response to a question posed in a forum on the appeals of Communism, the Ghana student said Africans will follow the lead of the country and philosophy, eastern or western, that best demonstrates its ability to provide respect and dignity.

A Nigerian rose to express similar views, adding that Africans are attracted by the political and economic systems that demonstrate their generosity and productive capacities by helping underdeveloped lands.

Another Nigerian student, speaking in a forum on racial tensions, said that the Communsit radio is telling Africa that America has two democracies, one for whites and one for Negroes. He added that he would have to report to the Nigerian government that the Communist view had been largely confirmed by his study and observations in the United States.

These points were developed during the first full day of a week-long conference at Ohio University. Some 3,600 students from all continents and virtually every culture in the world are represented.

The conference is sponsored by the interdenominational National Student Confederation. It is the 18th Ecumeical Student Conference of the Christian World Mission. Some non-Christian ideologies are represented.

Others from Africa estimated that 2,000 students from that continent are now in schools in Communist lands, most of them on complete scholarships. This is a substantial increase, they said, over five years ago.

One student at the forum on Communism, which drew the largest attendance of the day, introduced himself simply as being from East Germany and declared flatly that Communism has failed there.

De. Kermit Eby, professor of social science at the University of Chicago, told the delegates that man no longer lives by the sweat of his brow but rather for his leisure experience.

He said the Judeo-Christian outlook that work is the most creative expression of man's daily life is obsolete. Eby said this philsophy must be re-examined since the modern world is an automated world.

"We must keep in mind the ultimate natural resource is man and not property," he stressed.

American Economy To Grow Faster, Committee Predicts

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional committee staff report predicts the American economy in the future will grow at a somewhat higher rate than it has in the past 50 years.

The report warns a depression could upset the prediction. On the other hand, it adds: "Actually, we can enjoy an even higher rate of growth if we try."

The report was made Monday by the staff of the Senate-House Economic Committee and was based on a survey of views of economists and other specialists. A notation in the 500-page report said committee members neither approved nor disapproved the statements made.

The staff said the annual economic growth should be 3.4 per cent a year, if unfavorable factors are assumed; 3.9 per cent, if more optimistic factors are assumed; and 4.5 per cent, "if we try."

Numerous changes in federal policies were advocated.

These include: Revision of the administration's tight credit and high interest rate program; abolition of the ceiling on the national debt; revision of federal taxes to encourage investment and saving; streamlining administration's; Federal Reserve System; stiffer enforcement of antitrust laws; increasing federal aid to education and distressed areas; increasing unemployment benefits.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

I often wonder how many murders are committed by people who grew up in a private world of violence and terror.—G.M.

Dear G.M.: Thank you for an excellent letter. In this column, as well as in thousands of personal letters of advice that go to readers every month, we hammer away at the difference between discipline — which is essential to the development of character — and punishment, which is destructive.

Dear Ann Landers: Occasionally people write and ask what to do about neighbors, relatives or friends who abuse their children.

Congratulations, Ann, for urging them to contact the juvenile authorities or a service agency. Often people hesitate to interfere. I wish some kind soul had "interfered" in behalf of my sister and myself.

Not all mothers have normal tender feelings toward their children. Some who suffer disappointment and failure take it out on their little ones who can't fight back or escape. Of course they are mentally ill but they don't understand this and neither do their children.

My mother used to beat my little sister with a rolling pin or a wet dish cloth to make her eat. Naturally the anticipation of the beat-

Summer Fare

On "Perry Presents" (Perry Como, NBC-TV 8-9 p.m.) the writers strung together their row of shiny beads around a theme examining the various Juke Jix, Ids and Ills of history and that led into the songs. Hans Conried, who was assigned this unappetizing job, dealt feelingly on the Magna Charta, that great document that ignores all human beings some rights on this earth. And that led to Theresa Brewer's singing:

"The moon belongs to everyone.
"The best things in life are free."

That may be the confoundedest song cue I've ever heard and, believe me, I've heard some pretty far out ones.

Getting the Magna Charta mixed

This always has been a tasteful show either in black and white or in color. That is, if you like uninterrupted songs. Not everyone does.

BOTH THESE SHOWS are unbalanced in favor of the vocalists with too little, if any at all, of comedy or dance or any of the other components of a variety show. Frankly, I don't mind but I have seen people walk out on these shows because of their single-minded preoccupation with song.

"Brenner," a new series based on the work of plainclothes police, opened on CBS-TV 10 p.m. EDT Saturdays and I must say I was taken by the looks of the first one I saw (second in the series). It opened with a couple of plainclothes police, one a rookie, the other a veteran, inspecting the neighborhood through a telescope.

Another Evening With Fred Astaire

The most famous feet in the world already have begun to tap for an October show that safely can be adjudged in advance as a four-star event. This is the only kind of show Astaire knows how to do, though his modesty doesn't allow him to attribute his perfectionism to anything but long, arduous rehearsals. His work record provides him with a good argument.

Astaire gave about three months of his time to his initial television performance last October, and here he's already at work on a show that won't see the light of home screens for months.

"Like I said," remarks Astaire "I'd be nothing without lots of rehearsal time."

"My main concern is to do a show that will have a freshness about it and won't look like the last one. It's not easy, believe me."

IT'S THIS time - consuming devotion to perfection that prevents Astaire from accepting more than one television show a year. After all, he has other interests.

On his movie agenda are a few commitments, and recently he added book writing to his preoccupations (his autobiography, "Steps in Time," will be published this month). He also has nine TV Emmys on the mantelpiece to keep polished.

"It was sort of bewildering getting all those Emmys," remarked Astaire, who made an unsuccessful attempt at returning one of them—the best actor award—to the Academy of Television Arts And Sciences.

"When I heard the protests about my getting the best actor award, I wanted to do the right thing

Parade of Presidential Hopefuls

Democrats Beat Path to Labor

By VICTOR RIESEL

There were almost as many ready-to-run candidates as there were ready-to-wear buyers in this big garment town of New York these past few weeks. The presidential candidates, like the buyers, headed for the same industry. But unlike the buyers, the candidates were on the selling side — with a "soft sell" technique.

They were the Democratic hopefuls — hoping to win labor support.

Victor Riesel

Union leader David Dubinsky, dynamo and source of power in New York's unique Liberal-party; Alex Rose, president of the Hatters Union, whose friends kid him about being the Jim Farley of American labor but who won't run second to Jim in any political chess game and Jack Potofsky, head of the influential Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union, founded by his friend, Sidney Hillman. And, of course, Stu Symington.

For two hours they talked national politics. Sen. Symington respected his hosts' political sophistication too much to do anything but talk like a candidate. He never actually said he was. But everything he said said so.

Misdirected Wrath

By David Lawrence

So the American plane was unable to return the fire of the enemy planes! What a strange impact this has had on Congress. One would have thought there would be a great deal of indignation expressed against the enemy's wanton act. Instead, an avalanche of criticism was directed against the Navy for allowing a plane assigned to a reconnaissance mission to be without adequate armament. But wasn't the American plane's peaceful errand thereby emphasized?

David Lawrence

Union-represented workers on Aug. 24 will get an automatic pay increase of 9 cents an hour. They'll also get bigger fringe benefits.

It was an act of war. It was an attack on the American flag.

What will Congress do about it? Will those same members who are so ready to criticize the Navy because its plane had its armament removed to make way for reconnaissance equipment now stand ready to demand redress from the Communist country which started the shooting?

WILL THERE BE any group of congressmen who will advocate that diplomatic relations with the Kremlin be severed, since that government is primarily responsible for what its allies — Red China and North Korea — do?

It was Russian MIG fighter planes which attacked the U. S. Navy plane. The survivors of the attack say they saw a red star on one of the enemy planes.

Painless Retirement

By Hal Boyle

The problem of letting go is very hard.

It is hardest, of course, on the individual who reaches a corporate retirement age and still wants to keep on working, usually for the same corporation.

Hal Boyle

The main loyalty of his life outside his family has been tied to his job. He often feels he has been able to adjust better to the changing demands of his job than to those at home. Sometimes, as he is needed less at home when the children are on their own, he feels the need to be bigger at his office.

Then, usually at 65, the office doesn't need him any more.

What is done to cushion a faithful employe against the stunning fact that he is no longer a corporate necessity?

Few corporations today do more

ciety," said Wilgus. "All they need is a little steering before they leave their jobs."

"The main idea was to get people thinking about retirement, so that when it came it wouldn't be such a shock to them. The one day a week off at 64 helps get them used to the fact they will have more time on their hands and should find a way to spend it well.

"The human cry now let it is terrible to retire people. We try to show them what they can do to be happy."

WHAT ARE the results?

"The main benefit is that they think in advance on a systematic basis about the problems of retirement," said Wilgus.

"They all go out with a fishing rod in mind. Very few actually go on into other employment. Most don't want a full-time job because they can't collect social security if they earn more than $1,200 a year."

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

Taking The Fun Out Of It

One hardly could tell that George Burns had just completed a performance in a comedy show. The voice, the words, expression, might have belonged to a tragedian who'd just played "King Lear," and hadn't yet shook the mood.

Marie Torre

Fine advertisement, we thought, for last Sunday's "Jack Benny Show," which was the comedy—on tape—that kindled Burns' wrath, causing him to begin the conversation, not with the usual "A-funny-thing-happened-t o-m e-on-the-way-to" line, but with an angry observation anent the state of television.

-:-

"THE MEN running the show aren't making any sense," Burns asserted, "and I don't mean the Jack Bennys. I mean the people making the rules."

"Let me tell you about this Benny show," said Burns. "We taped it before a live audience of 300, recording the laughs just as they came, and when it was over we found three or four spots that could have been improved.

"In the past, we would have had no hesitation about editing or correcting the faulty spots. But we all have now.

"WHEN YOU CHANGE the tiniest segment of a comedy show, you naturally have to utilize a little canned laughter for the section that's redone. We all did it. But now if we do it, we have to announce at the end of the show, 'A portion of the audience reaction was technically augmented.'

"Well, Benny wouldn't have a statement like this made at the end of his show, and I can see his point. The public would get the idea we rigged the laughs, maybe all of them. In other words, he'd rather let the show go as is, with the faults, than make that nonsensical announcement and give the public the wrong idea.

"This is ridiculous. This is cheating the public of what might be superior entertainment.

"They're not taking 'deceit' out of show business; they're taking the illusion out of show business. When a performer is prevented from showing himself off to best advantage, we're in trouble. . ."

This was perhaps one of Burns' most serious monologues and he wouldn't get off the subject.

"SEEMS TO ME," Burns continued, "the rule makers are forgetting that the main purpose of a TV show is to entertain, which is tough enough without rules. Even tougher on TV.

"When you tape or film a show before a live audience of 300, you have to figure that about two-thirds of the audience can't see what's happening because of the cameras and the rest of the equipment in the way. This means that only 100 see what's going on, and maybe 50 of them will react.

"Is the laughter recorded from this audience a true reflection of reaction to performance? It sure isn't! Now they're trying to make it tougher with those ridiculous announcements."

The problem is one Burns doesn't have to face more than a few times a year, since he's confined his TV activity to several guest appearances a season.

"Yeh," he said—and he seemed inordinately happy at the thought.

TAKING THE VIEW that Maurice Chevalier has sufficient charm to fill a full "Person to Pearson" show (as understatement, we'd say), the interview program will have the French troubadour as the sole guest Friday. Only other time "Person" devoted a full program to a single visit was with Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Truman in May 1955. . . .

More on culture replacing the cowboy in TV popularity. During the 1960-61 season, CBS will reserve a full hour of prime evening time, at the same hour each week, for programming of "an informational, cultural and educational nature." . . .

Beginning this week, NBC will attempt to uncover promising young talent in the old Hollywood way—via screen tests. Supervising the screen tests is David Tebet, NBC director of talent relations. . . .

The weekly "Insider's Newsletter" reports that Sen. John Kennedy will make a "Meet the Press" appearance in January and make "a rather broad appeal for tolerance" with respect to the religion-in-politics issue."

WITH RATING service under fire, a Nielsen official sadly admits that he's personally feeling the brunt of the criticism.

"My family and friends," he complains, "are beginning to think of me as being in an illegitimate business.

"Only yesterday I had a call from my father who wanted to know why I was still working for 'that Nielsen Company.' "

Reckless Driving Case To Await Hearing Date

No hearing has been set yet for Hobert Adkins, 1846 Harvey Ave., charged with reckless driving after a crash Dec. 13 with a city truck on Dresden Ave. near the city limits.

In a mixup of last names, The Review last Wednesday erroneously reported Adkins had been charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol. Adkins pleaded not guilty on the reckless driving count when arraigned after his release from City Hospital. The case was continued until last Wednesday and then continued indefinitely.

DiSalle May Address Democratic Meeting

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, invited to address a Democratic pre-platform meeting next year in Maine, said he might go.

The invitation was extended Monday by State Sen. Alton A. Lessard of Lewiston, Maine, a Georgetown Law School classmate of DiSalle's, newsmen learned.

Called an issues conference, the meeting will be held next February or March in Augusta, Maine.

Drunk Driving Penalty Given 3 In City Court

Three motorists have been fined and jailed for drunken driving as the aftermath of their arrests over the long Christmas weekend.

Miss Leola Robinson, 44, of Cleveland and Floyd Lewis Myers of Chester R. D. 1 drew fines of $300 and costs each and jail terms of 10 days after hearings Monday before Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw.

Judge Brokaw suspended Miss Robinson's license for six months and revoked Myers' right to drive in Ohio for the same length of time.

Miss Robinson was cited early Christmas morning after a collision with another auto in the Diamond and Myers was cited early Thursday morning on Pennsylvania Ave.

In a hearing held in police headquarters Saturday, Hugh M. Thorne, 34, of 113 W. 2nd St. drew the same penalty from Judge Brokaw on a similar charge.

Thorne was cited Thursday afternoon after his car and a truck operated by Lewis R. Galloway, 34, of 802 Dewey Ave. collided at State St. and the River Rd.

Galloway pleaded not guilty to driving left of center yesterday morning but was found guilty by Judge Brokaw and fined $10 and costs.

Francis Vallera of Industry R. D. 1, who was cited Christmas afternoon for driving without a valid permit, drew a suspended fine of $10 and costs yesterday. Vallera's auto was one of three involved in a chain-type collision at Pennsylvania and Dewey Aves.

Albert Liebowitz of Springfield Gardens, N. Y., forfeited an $11 bond yesterday on a charge of crashing a traffic signal at E. 5th St. and Broadway Saturday night.

Glenn Powell of R. D. 2, cited by the State Highway Patrol Dec. 22 for passing without the assured clear distance, is scheduled to appear Wednesday.

ATLANTA (AP) — Two Negro organizations are starting a drive to register an additional 1,100,000 southern Negro voters in time for participation in the 1960 presidential election.

The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., of Montgomery, Ala., president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said the campaign would be non - partisan but that the groups were "urging backing of candidates who have a record of supporting civil rights."

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

Taking The Fun Out Of It

One hardly could tell that George Burns had just completed a performance in a comedy show. The voice, the words, expression, might have belonged to a tragedian who'd just played "King Lear," and hadn't yet shook the mood.

Marie Torre

Fine advertisement, we thought, for last Sunday's "Jack Benny Show," which was the comedy—on tape—that kindled Burns' wrath, causing him to begin the conversation, not with the usual "A-funny-thing-happened-t o-m e-on-the-way-to" line, but with an angry observation anent the state of television.

-:-

"THE MEN running the show aren't making any sense," Burns asserted, "and I don't mean the Jack Bennys. I mean the people making the rules."

"Let me tell you about this Benny show," said Burns. "We taped it before a live audience of 300, recording the laughs just as they came, and when it was over we found three or four spots that could have been improved.

"In the past, we would have had no hesitation about editing or correcting the faulty spots. But we all have now.

"WHEN YOU CHANGE the tiniest segment of a comedy show, you naturally have to utilize a little canned laughter for the section that's redone. We all did it. But now if we do it, we have to announce at the end of the show, 'A portion of the audience reaction was technically augmented.'

"Well, Benny wouldn't have a statement like this made at the end of his show, and I can see his point. The public would get the idea we rigged the laughs, maybe all of them. In other words, he'd rather let the show go as is, with the faults, than make that nonsensical announcement and give the public the wrong idea.

"This is ridiculous. This is cheating the public of what might be superior entertainment.

"They're not taking 'deceit' out of show business; they're taking the illusion out of show business. When a performer is prevented from showing himself off to best advantage, we're in trouble. . ."

This was perhaps one of Burns' most serious monologues and he wouldn't get off the subject.

"SEEMS TO ME," Burns continued, "the rule makers are forgetting that the main purpose of a TV show is to entertain, which is tough enough without rules. Even tougher on TV.

"When you tape or film a show before a live audience of 300, you have to figure that about two-thirds of the audience can't see what's happening because of the cameras and the rest of the equipment in the way. This means that only 100 see what's going on, and maybe 50 of them will react.

"Is the laughter recorded from this audience a true reflection of reaction to performance? It sure isn't! Now they're trying to make it tougher with those ridiculous announcements."

The problem is one Burns doesn't have to face more than a few times a year, since he's confined his TV activity to several guest appearances a season.

"Yeh," he said—and he seemed inordinately happy at the thought.

TAKING THE VIEW that Maurice Chevalier has sufficient charm to fill a full "Person to Pearson" show (as understatement, we'd say), the interview program will have the French troubadour as the sole guest Friday. Only other time "Person" devoted a full program to a single visit was with Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Truman in May 1955. . . .

More on culture replacing the cowboy in TV popularity. During the 1960-61 season, CBS will reserve a full hour of prime evening time, at the same hour each week, for programming of "an informational, cultural and educational nature." . . .

Beginning this week, NBC will attempt to uncover promising young talent in the old Hollywood way—via screen tests. Supervising the screen tests is David Tebet, NBC director of talent relations. . . .

The weekly "Insider's Newsletter" reports that Sen. John Kennedy will make a "Meet the Press" appearance in January and make "a rather broad appeal for tolerance" with respect to the religion-in-politics issue."

WITH RATING service under fire, a Nielsen official sadly admits that he's personally feeling the brunt of the criticism.

"My family and friends," he complains, "are beginning to think of me as being in an illegitimate business.

"Only yesterday I had a call from my father who wanted to know why I was still working for 'that Nielsen Company.' "

Reckless Driving Case To Await Hearing Date

No hearing has been set yet for Hobert Adkins, 1846 Harvey Ave., charged with reckless driving after a crash Dec. 13 with a city truck on Dresden Ave. near the city limits.

In a mixup of last names, The Review last Wednesday erroneously reported Adkins had been charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol. Adkins pleaded not guilty on the reckless driving count when arraigned after his release from City Hospital. The case was continued until last Wednesday and then continued indefinitely.

DiSalle May Address Democratic Meeting

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, invited to address a Democratic pre-platform meeting next year in Maine, said he might go.

The invitation was extended Monday by State Sen. Alton A. Lessard of Lewiston, Maine, a Georgetown Law School classmate of DiSalle's, newsmen learned.

Called an issues conference, the meeting will be held next February or March in Augusta, Maine.

Drunk Driving Penalty Given 3 In City Court

Three motorists have been fined and jailed for drunken driving as the aftermath of their arrests over the long Christmas weekend.

Miss Leola Robinson, 44, of Cleveland and Floyd Lewis Myers of Chester R. D. 1 drew fines of $300 and costs each and jail terms of 10 days after hearings Monday before Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw.

Judge Brokaw suspended Miss Robinson's license for six months and revoked Myers' right to drive in Ohio for the same length of time.

Miss Robinson was cited early Christmas morning after a collision with another auto in the Diamond and Myers was cited early Thursday morning on Pennsylvania Ave.

In a hearing held in police headquarters Saturday, Hugh M. Thorne, 34, of 113 W. 2nd St. drew the same penalty from Judge Brokaw on a similar charge.

Thorne was cited Thursday afternoon after his car and a truck operated by Lewis R. Galloway, 34, of 802 Dewey Ave. collided at State St. and the River Rd.

Galloway pleaded not guilty to driving left of center yesterday morning but was found guilty by Judge Brokaw and fined $10 and costs.

Francis Vallera of Industry R. D. 1, who was cited Christmas afternoon for driving without a valid permit, drew a suspended fine of $10 and costs yesterday. Vallera's auto was one of three involved in a chain-type collision at Pennsylvania and Dewey Aves.

Albert Liebowitz of Springfield Gardens, N. Y., forfeited an $11 bond yesterday on a charge of crashing a traffic signal at E. 5th St. and Broadway Saturday night.

Glenn Powell of R. D. 2, cited by the State Highway Patrol Dec. 22 for passing without the assured clear distance, is scheduled to appear Wednesday.

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—Carbon monoxide fumes from a rusted out chimney flue asphyxiated four members of a Cheyenne family whose bodies were found Monday, coroner Marvin Schrader said.

The bodies were found when the employer of Audrey Mae Brandell, 28, decided to find out why she hadn't reported for work Sunday afternoon. She was a waitress.

Mrs. Brandell and one son, Richard, 4, were found in their beds. Her husband, Robert E., 32, a bus driver, and another son, Robert Dean, 7, were found sprawled on the bodroom floor.

2 Negro Groups Open Drive For New South Voters

ATLANTA (AP) — Two Negro organizations are starting a drive to register an additional 1,100,000 southern Negro voters in time for participation in the 1960 presidential election.

Leaders of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference worked out details Monday at a meeting attended by 23 representatives of the two groups.

Roy Wilkins of New York, executive secretary of the NAACP, said an intensive campaign would be carried out block by block with the help of state and local organizations and civic groups.

The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., of Montgomery, Ala., president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said the campaign would be non - partisan but that the groups were "urging backing of candidates who have a record of supporting civil rights."

Wilkins and King said the goal of their organizations was to register 2,500,000 Negroes in the South for the 1960 presidential election.

The event, one of the highlights of Jaycee activities, will be Wednesday, Jan. 20, at the Country Club.

Another highlight of the dinner will be the presentation of the annual distinguished service and community service awards, two of the highest honors conferred by Jaycees. The recipients are selected by two anonymous committees.

Hales asked that the members return the reservation forms to him as quickly as possible.

"Jayceeism" will be featured at the dinner. The work of the organization on the national, state and local levels will be outlined.

Midland To Battle Ford City In Holiday Finals Tonight

Yetso Scores 23 In 61-43 Victory

FORD CITY — Midland will square off against host Ford City here tonight for the championship in the Fourth Annual Kiwanis Club Holiday Tournament after coasting to a 61-43 victory over North Braddock Scott Monday night.

The Leopards bounced back from their only defeat of the season Saturday night at New Castle to whip Scott in the opening round Monday of the four-team tourney.

Tonight's championship game between Midland and Ford City will get underway at 8:45 p. m. preceeded by a consolation tilt pitting last night's two losers — Leechburg and Scott. The consolation game will start at 7:30 p. m.

Midland's opponent, Ford City, made it to the finals by handing Leechburg a 59-57 defeat Monday night.

Big Steve Yetso returned to his old form Monday in leading the Leopards with a brilliant 23 - point performance.

Yetso, along with Movie Smith, pulled down the majority of the rebounds for Coach George Hamilton's team.

Monday's victory pushed Midland's record to 8-1 for the season.

The Leopards found it smooth sailing all the way last night by gaining a 15-7 edge at the first quarter mark, 28-18 at halftime and a 53-32 margin after three periods of play.

Behind Yetso in the scoring department was Smith who contributed 14 points to the attack, while Anderson dropped in 8 points.

The Leopards were at full strength again with Gene Lake back from a bout with the flu.

Midland took 71 shots at the rim and hit on 24 for 33 per cent shooting mark while Scott showed 12 of 57 for a poor 21 per cent.

The defeat left Scott with a 4-4 record. Dave Reynolds paced the losers with 12.

Landry Goes To Dallas In New Pro Loop

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—"The best football coach in the business," Tom Landry, defensive mentor of the New York Giants of the National Football League, Monday became a Texas coach without a squad.

Landry signed with Bedford Wynne and Clint Murchison Jr., who hope to land a National Football League franchise in Dallas, to coach their Dallas Rangers.

A native of Dallas who played with the University of Texas, Landry was also sought by Bud Adams, owner of the Houston Oiler franchise in the newly organized American Football League.

It was Jim Lee Howell, head coach of the Giants, who recently called Landry "the greatest coach in football."

Almost to the moment Landry signed with the Rangers, Adams appeared to consider his chance of bagging Landry a good one. Now Adams has indicated he will go after Lou Rymkus, offensive coach of the Los Angeles Rams of the NFL, for his Oilers' head man.

Landry's signing made it appear almost certain that Dallas will have two professional football teams next season. The other team is the Texans of the American Football League, headed by Lamar Hunt, Dallas oilman and founder of the AFL.

AAU Continue Swedish Case

NEW YORK (AP)—It was war on the international basketball front today with the AAU right in the middle of the shooting.

A Swedish national basketball team, in defiance of an AAU ban, was scheduled to arrive here for a series of games with American colleges.

AAU Chief Dan Ferris, who has been through dozens of skirmishes in his 40-odd years with the outfit, refused to sanction the trip because, he said, a professional promoter was behind it. He identified the promoter as Jim McGregor of Portland, Ore.

McGregor denied he promoted the trip. Swedish basketball officials fumed and reported to the international basketball federation whose president said he could see no irregularities in the arrangements.

That's how thing stood until Monday night when the Swedish team took off from Goteborg.

Before taking off, Ake Nillson, head of the Swedish Basketball Federation, complained:

"The AAU has no right to do this. We aim to make a test case out of it. It's a personal feud between McGregor and the AAU and Ferris is penalizing both the American and Swedish players."

"I've never had anything like this happen before," admitted Ferris. "I suppose I'll be hearing from them. But the rules are clear. The entire AAU, not me alone, voted not to sanction the trip."

The series is against a group of small colleges, mosty members of the NAIA, plus a private club.

Tight Race Shapes Up In Industrial Scoring

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A tight race for the individual scoring lead is shaping up among six players in the National Industrial Basketball League.

There also are two team surprises. Cleveland, one of three new entrants, is atop the standings with a 6-2 mark. Denver, last year's champ, is at the bottom of the nine-team loop with a 2-6 record.

Akron (3-2) is in third place.

Nation's Top Three Advance In Tourneys

Cincinnati Moves To ECAC Finals

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cincinnati, West Virginia and California are still thumping anybody who comes along as the top three clubs in major college basketball, but Utah, Ohio State and Illinois have just been thumped.

Utah, ranked No. 4 in this week's Associated Press poll, came to the end of the string Monday night as Duke (5-1) handed the Utes their first defeat in nine games 63-52 for a first-round upset in the Dixie Classic at Raleigh, N.C.

Kentucky, a three-time loser, came from 15 points back for a 96-93 decision over fifth-ranked Ohio State (7-2) despite a 34-point job by the Bucks' Jerry Lucas in a non-tournament game at Lexington, Ky. Bill Lickert, switching to the backcourt, scored 29 for the Wildcats and Bennie Coffman sank 26.

Unbeaten Cincinnati, still No. 1, made it eight straight and gained the finals of the ECAC Holiday Festival with an 86-77 victory over stubborn St. Joseph's (Pa) at New York's Madison Square Garden. St. Joseph's, walloped 123-79 earlier by the Bearcats, had the high scorer in Bob McNeill with 30 points and held All-America Oscar Robertson to 25 points, but never got closer than five points.

West Virginia (9-0) and California (7-0), ranked 2-3 headed toward another showdown with first-round victories in the Los Angeles Classic. The Mountaineers beat Stanford 66-47, but led by one, 40-39, with 8 minutes left before All-America Jerry West, who scored 27 and took down 21 rebounds, took charge in a 10-0 spurt. California, a one-point winner over West Virginia in last season's NCAA final, ran its two-year streak to 23 by handing eighth-ranked Illinois a 62-48 loss, first for the Illini in six games.

Duke used just five men against Utah and all scored in double figures. Duke meets North Carolina, a 72-65 winner over Minnesota on Lee Shaffer's 29 points after trailing by seven, tonight. The other semifinal sends Wake Forest, which dealt Holy Cross a first loss 80-7, with 5-10 Billy Packer scoring 25, against Dayton's Flyers, who defeated defending champ North Carolina State 36-32.

Iowa's hustling Hawkeyes (5-1) challenge Cincinnati for the ECAC title Wednesday night after knocking off previously unbeaten NYU 80-75. The Hawks (8-1), who trailed by eight, got their first lead at 60-55 with a 10-0 drive led by 5-8 Mike Heitman, who then gave them the lead for keeps with a jump shot that broke a 68-68 tie. NYU's Tom Sanders led scoring with 26.

Southern California beat Northwestern 81-62 and plays West Virginia in tonight's semifinals at Los Angeles. UCLA walloped Michigan 93-68 for the berth opposite California.

Indiana (7-1), ranked No. 7, was the only other top 10 team at work Monday night and beat Maryland 72-63 despite Al Bunge's 26 points for the Terps in the Bluegrass Invitational at Louisville. The Hoosiers, led by 6-10 Walt Bellamy's 25 points, go for the title tonight against Louisville, a 66-61 winner over Fordham.

In a tournament final Canisius whipped Wisconsin 80-65 for the Queen City title at Buffalo.

Texas Christian defeated defending champ Texas A & M 72-61 in the first round of the Southwest Conference tournament at Houston. Texas beat Rice 79-53 and plays TCU tonight. Southern Methodist, which defeated Texas Tech 85-65, meets Arkansas, 71-66 winner over Baylor.

Oklahoma trailed by 11 but beat Missouri 70-65 in the Big Eight tournament at Kansas City. Kansas defeated Oklahoma State 67-59 and plays the Sooners tonight. The other semifinal pairs Saturday's winners, Iowa State and Colorado.

Wichita beat Cornell 78-62 and meets Utah State, a 75-65 winner over Niagara, in tonight's semifinals of the All College at Oklahoma City. Bowl Green beat Tulsa 61-58 and now faces Oklahoma City, which whipped Clemson 84-57.

Bill Wold's jump shot with 8 seconds left gave Oregon State a 49-48 decision over Idaho. The Beavers meet Oregon, which slapped Washington State 63-48, for the Far West Classic title tonight at Corvallis, Ore.

Ewbank Looks For Colts To Stay On Top

BALTIMORE (AP) — "You're great, and we're going on and on," Coach Weeb Ewbank told his Baltimore Colts after they won their second consecutive National Football League championship Sunday.

Only four other teams in 27 years of NFL playoffs have won consecutive titles, and no team has won three in a row.

Ewbank's confidence shouldn't be taken lightly. His announced five-year plan for a Baltimore championship came through right on schedule last year.

The Colt players were especially happy with the wide margin of their 31-16 victory over the New York Giants in Sunday's playoff game. Some critics had suggested the Colts were lucky to edge the Giants 23-17 in overtime for their first title last year.

"You win the title one year, and some say you're lucky," summed up offensive guard and linebacker Steve Myhra. "But we've won it twice, so I hope they'll say we're really got something going for us."

George Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears, seemed to agree. He said in Chicago Monday night that "I definitely would class the Colts with the great teams I have seen."

Last year the dean of NFL owners and coaches said "a team must prove itself over several years."

Voting Varies For Favorite In Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A surprising tide of favoritism for the Washington Huskies cropped up today among members of the press corps here to cover the Rose Bowl New Year's Day.

One poll of writers, television and radio men came out with 55 selecting Washington to win to 39 favoring Wisconsin, the Big Ten champion.

A less extensive poll came out 17 - 15 favoring Wisconsin. The Midwest voted solidly for the Badgers, the Northwest unanimously for Washington.

Professional odds still favor Wisconsin by at least six points.

One-a-day workouts remained in effect for both squads today while Coach Milt Bruhn continued his barred-gate policy for all West Coast writers.

Big Jim Owens confided that he is feeling somewhat better over the condition of his Huskies and said "by game time I think we will be all right."

Bad weather at home, as well as a missed key workout here, hampered the Huskies' training program.

Bruhn apparently had no such concern.

"We are on schedule and I hope we will be ready to play a real fine football game New Year's Day," Bruhn observed.

Springfield's Trio Retains Scoring Lead

NEW YORK (AP)—Springfield's trio of Floyd Smith, Bill Sweeney and Art Stratton continue to hold the top three spots in the American Hockey League scoring race although held to five points between them last week.

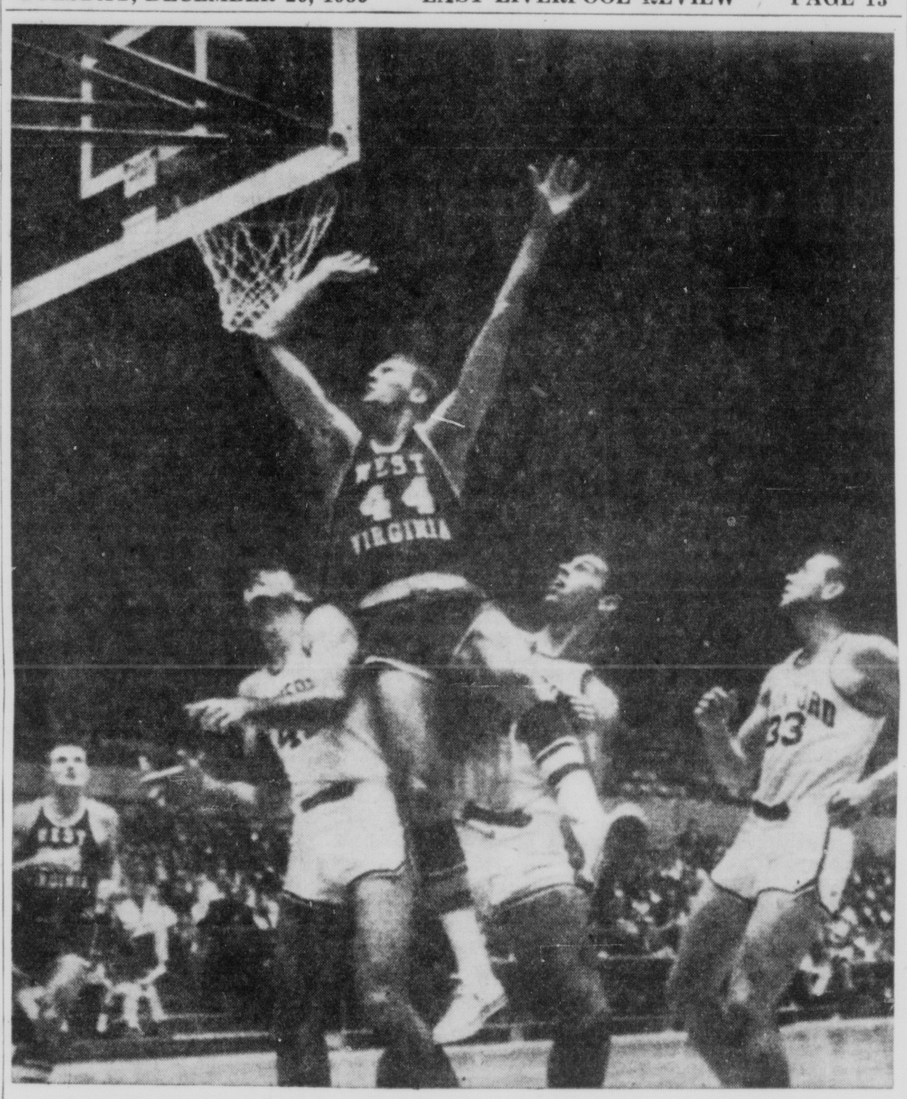

Smith retained first place by picking up two points for a total of 50. He has scored 17 goals and assisted on 33.

Stratton added two points, Sweeney one, and the Indians' teammates are tied for runner-up with 45 points.

Sweeney is tied for the lead in goals (19) with another teammate, Harry Pidhirny, and Providence's Ray Ross. Stratton is top man in assists (34).

Rochester's Ed Chadwick is No. 1 goalie, allowing a low of 2.61 goals a game.

When Pittsburgh upset Penn State the Panthers increased their edge in the season series. Pitt now leads 33-23. Three games were ties.

ALL-AMERICAN Jerry West of West Virginia scores in the first period against Stanford in their opening game in the first Los Angeles basketball classic. The halftime score was 23-23 but West Virginia pulled away in the second half for a 66-47 victory. The tournament runs three days and features eight of the nation's top college teams. West Shakes Injuries To Tally 27 In Opener

LOS ANGELES (AP) — West Virginia All - America Jerry West of broken nose fame left his face mask on the bench but he certainly didn't leave his scoring touch there yesterday against Stanford in the first round of the Los Angeles Holiday Basketball Festival.

The 6-3 senior shook off a bruised elbow and his nose injury to pitch in 27 points and grab 21 rebounds to lead WVU past the Indians, 66-47.

It wasn't until the final eight minutes that West really took charge of the slow, sluggish game which found the two teams locked in a 23-23 struggle at halftime.

West showed his brilliance by lifting his team from a 40-39 lead to a 50-39 bulge in the space of two minutes. He completely dominated the proceedings at this stage, hogging rebounds, setting up buckets for his teammates and scoring from everywhere.

After West broke the game open the Mountaineers spurted to a big 20-point lead with three minutes to go.

West didn't seem bothered by a broken nose picked up a week ago against Kentucky. He took a hard spill in the first few minutes of the Stanford contest and bruised his elbow. He stayed in the game, however, and played about 38 minutes.

Stanford, a 13-point underdog to the unbeaten Mountaineers, dominated the first half. The Indians led most of the opening frame, their largest margin being 19-13.

The Mountaineers played sloppy ball in the early minutes, constantly blowing easy scoring chances. All told, they brought the ball down the court 22 times without getting off a shot.

West showed an eagle eye from the floor, hitting on 11 of 15 attempts. He was way off at the foul line, however, making only five of 14 free throws.

West got scoring help from Lee Patrone who finished with 12 points. He tallied most of these in the later stages of the contest. Reserve Joe Miller picked up 10 points while Willie Akers added nine to the WVU cause.

This was WVU's ninth victory of the campaign. It was Stanford's fourth straight loss and gave the Indians a 2-4 showing. John Arrillaga was top scorer for the Indians with 16 points. Bub Bowling contributed 11.

This was WVU's lowest score of the season. The Mountaineers went into the contest, averaging 91.5 points an outing.

West tried out two face masks, designed to protect his broken nose, before deciding to play without one. One was devised by Team Trainer Whitey Gwynne. The other was sent here by South Charleston, W. Va. High School Coach Jack Surrette.

West said the masks hampered his breathing and cut off his circulation.

West Plans Secret Drills For 2 Days

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — West Coach Bill Meek of Southern Methodist and his squad will plot secretly against the East today in preparing for the Shrine East-West football game here Jan. 2.

All except those closely associated with the team will be barred from the workouts for the next two days. Meek said the West is concered at this stage with tightening up its defense.

It has become clear that the offense will feature the passing of quarterback Don Meredith of Southern Methodist. He and lineman Paul Oglesby of UCLA were elected co-captains Monday.

East Coach Duffy Daughterty of Michigan State announced contentedly that 245-pound tackle Lou Cordileone of Clemson had recovered from a virus and was back in the drills. But Duffy said he wasn't too pleased with an apparent letdown by others on the squad.

Christman Returns To Help Alma Mater In Bowl Drills

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—If Missouri couldn't win a bowl game with the great Paul Christman, what chance do the Tigers have without him in the Orange Bowl Friday against Georgia, inquired Missouri Coach Danny Devine.

Devine had Christman on hand Monday during a light scrimmage. The passing star of the 1938-40 era chipped in to help his alma mater, giving the quarterbacks a few tips as he tossed the ball around with a semblance of his old-time skill.

It was Christman who saved Missouri from a shutout in the 1940 Orange Bowl game which Georgia Tech won 21-7.

"If Missouri couldn't win with Christman, how can we be expected to do anything Friday?" asked Devine. "That team had better personnel than this Tiger outfit."

Coach Wally Butts, obviously satisfied with the condition of his Georgia players, announced he would taper off drills today. He sent them through two brief but snappy workouts Monday.

A wet field made the Bulldogs go easy but they got in plenty of running.

Mark Tardy of Adelphi College is the tallest athlete at the Garden City, N. Y., school. He's 6-foot-6 and plays on the squash team.

Midland To Battle Ford City In Holiday Finals Tonight

Yetso Scores 23 In 61-43 Victory

FORD CITY — Midland will square off against host Ford City here tonight for the championship in the Fourth Annual Kiwanis Club Holiday Tournament after coasting to a 61-43 victory over North Braddock Scott Monday night.

The Leopards bounced back from their only defeat of the season Saturday night at New Castle to whip Scott in the opening round Monday of the four-team tourney.

Tonight's championship game between Midland and Ford City will get underway at 8:45 p. m. preceeded by a consolation tilt pitting last night's two losers — Leechburg and Scott. The consolation game will start at 7:30 p. m.

Midland's opponent, Ford City, made it to the finals by handing Leechburg a 59-57 defeat Monday night.

Big Steve Yetso returned to his old form Monday in leading the Leopards with a brilliant 23 - point performance.

Yetso, along with Movie Smith, pulled down the majority of the rebounds for Coach George Hamilton's team.

Monday's victory pushed Midland's record to 8-1 for the season.

The Leopards found it smooth sailing all the way last night by gaining a 15-7 edge at the first quarter mark, 28-18 at halftime and a 53-32 margin after three periods of play.

Behind Yetso in the scoring department was Smith who contributed 14 points to the attack, while Anderson dropped in 8 points.

The Leopards were at full strength again with Gene Lake back from a bout with the flu.

Midland took 71 shots at the rim and hit on 24 for 33 per cent shooting mark while Scott showed 12 of 57 for a poor 21 per cent.

The defeat left Scott with a 4-4 record. Dave Reynolds paced the losers with 12.

Landry Goes To Dallas In New Pro Loop

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—"The best football coach in the business," Tom Landry, defensive mentor of the New York Giants of the National Football League, Monday became a Texas coach without a squad.

Landry signed with Bedford Wynne and Clint Murchison Jr., who hope to land a National Football League franchise in Dallas, to coach their Dallas Rangers.

A native of Dallas who played with the University of Texas, Landry was also sought by Bud Adams, owner of the Houston Oiler franchise in the newly organized American Football League.

It was Jim Lee Howell, head coach of the Giants, who recently called Landry "the greatest coach in football."

Almost to the moment Landry signed with the Rangers, Adams appeared to consider his chance of bagging Landry a good one. Now Adams has indicated he will go after Lou Rymkus, offensive coach of the Los Angeles Rams of the NFL, for his Oilers' head man.

Landry's signing made it appear almost certain that Dallas will have two professional football teams next season. The other team is the Texans of the American Football League, headed by Lamar Hunt, Dallas oilman and founder of the AFL.

AAU Continue Swedish Case

NEW YORK (AP)—It was war on the international basketball front today with the AAU right in the middle of the shooting.

A Swedish national basketball team, in defiance of an AAU ban, was scheduled to arrive here for a series of games with American colleges.

AAU Chief Dan Ferris, who has been through dozens of skirmishes in his 40-odd years with the outfit, refused to sanction the trip because, he said, a professional promoter was behind it. He identified the promoter as Jim McGregor of Portland, Ore.

McGregor denied he promoted the trip. Swedish basketball officials fumed and reported to the international basketball federation whose president said he could see no irregularities in the arrangements.

That's how thing stood until Monday night when the Swedish team took off from Goteborg.

Before taking off, Ake Nillson, head of the Swedish Basketball Federation, complained:

"The AAU has no right to do this. We aim to make a test case out of it. It's a personal feud between McGregor and the AAU and Ferris is penalizing both the American and Swedish players."

"I've never had anything like this happen before," admitted Ferris. "I suppose I'll be hearing from them. But the rules are clear. The entire AAU, not me alone, voted not to sanction the trip."

The series is against a group of small colleges, mosty members of the NAIA, plus a private club.

Tight Race Shapes Up In Industrial Scoring

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — A tight race for the individual scoring lead is shaping up among six players in the National Industrial Basketball League.

There also are two team surprises. Cleveland, one of three new entrants, is atop the standings with a 6-2 mark. Denver, last year's champ, is at the bottom of the nine-team loop with a 2-6 record.

Akron (3-2) is in third place.

Nation's Top Three Advance In Tourneys

Cincinnati Moves To ECAC Finals

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cincinnati, West Virginia and California are still thumping anybody who comes along as the top three clubs in major college basketball, but Utah, Ohio State and Illinois have just been thumped.

Utah, ranked No. 4 in this week's Associated Press poll, came to the end of the string Monday night as Duke (5-1) handed the Utes their first defeat in nine games 63-52 for a first-round upset in the Dixie Classic at Raleigh, N.C.

Kentucky, a three-time loser, came from 15 points back for a 96-93 decision over fifth-ranked Ohio State (7-2) despite a 34-point job by the Bucks' Jerry Lucas in a non-tournament game at Lexington, Ky. Bill Lickert, switching to the backcourt, scored 29 for the Wildcats and Bennie Coffman sank 26.

Unbeaten Cincinnati, still No. 1, made it eight straight and gained the finals of the ECAC Holiday Festival with an 86-77 victory over stubborn St. Joseph's (Pa) at New York's Madison Square Garden. St. Joseph's, walloped 123-79 earlier by the Bearcats, had the high scorer in Bob McNeill with 30 points and held All-America Oscar Robertson to 25 points, but never got closer than five points.

West Virginia (9-0) and California (7-0), ranked 2-3 headed toward another showdown with first-round victories in the Los Angeles Classic. The Mountaineers beat Stanford 66-47, but led by one, 40-39, with 8 minutes left before All-America Jerry West, who scored 27 and took down 21 rebounds, took charge in a 10-0 spurt. California, a one-point winner over West Virginia in last season's NCAA final, ran its two-year streak to 23 by handing eighth-ranked Illinois a 62-48 loss, first for the Illini in six games.

Duke used just five men against Utah and all scored in double figures. Duke meets North Carolina, a 72-65 winner over Minnesota on Lee Shaffer's 29 points after trailing by seven, tonight. The other semifinal sends Wake Forest, which dealt Holy Cross a first loss 80-7, with 5-10 Billy Packer scoring 25, against Dayton's Flyers, who defeated defending champ North Carolina State 36-32.

Iowa's hustling Hawkeyes (5-1) challenge Cincinnati for the ECAC title Wednesday night after knocking off previously unbeaten NYU 80-75. The Hawks (8-1), who trailed by eight, got their first lead at 60-55 with a 10-0 drive led by 5-8 Mike Heitman, who then gave them the lead for keeps with a jump shot that broke a 68-68 tie. NYU's Tom Sanders led scoring with 26.

Southern California beat Northwestern 81-62 and plays West Virginia in tonight's semifinals at Los Angeles. UCLA walloped Michigan 93-68 for the berth opposite California.

Indiana (7-1), ranked No. 7, was the only other top 10 team at work Monday night and beat Maryland 72-63 despite Al Bunge's 26 points for the Terps in the Bluegrass Invitational at Louisville. The Hoosiers, led by 6-10 Walt Bellamy's 25 points, go for the title tonight against Louisville, a 66-61 winner over Fordham.

In a tournament final Canisius whipped Wisconsin 80-65 for the Queen City title at Buffalo.

Texas Christian defeated defending champ Texas A & M 72-61 in the first round of the Southwest Conference tournament at Houston. Texas beat Rice 79-53 and plays TCU tonight. Southern Methodist, which defeated Texas Tech 85-65, meets Arkansas, 71-66 winner over Baylor.

Oklahoma trailed by 11 but beat Missouri 70-65 in the Big Eight tournament at Kansas City. Kansas defeated Oklahoma State 67-59 and plays the Sooners tonight. The other semifinal pairs Saturday's winners, Iowa State and Colorado.

Wichita beat Cornell 78-62 and meets Utah State, a 75-65 winner over Niagara, in tonight's semifinals of the All College at Oklahoma City. Bowl Green beat Tulsa 61-58 and now faces Oklahoma City, which whipped Clemson 84-57.

Bill Wold's jump shot with 8 seconds left gave Oregon State a 49-48 decision over Idaho. The Beavers meet Oregon, which slapped Washington State 63-48, for the Far West Classic title tonight at Corvallis, Ore.

Ewbank Looks For Colts To Stay On Top

BALTIMORE (AP) — "You're great, and we're going on and on," Coach Weeb Ewbank told his Baltimore Colts after they won their second consecutive National Football League championship Sunday.

Only four other teams in 27 years of NFL playoffs have won consecutive titles, and no team has won three in a row.

Ewbank's confidence shouldn't be taken lightly. His announced five-year plan for a Baltimore championship came through right on schedule last year.

The Colt players were especially happy with the wide margin of their 31-16 victory over the New York Giants in Sunday's playoff game. Some critics had suggested the Colts were lucky to edge the Giants 23-17 in overtime for their first title last year.

"You win the title one year, and some say you're lucky," summed up offensive guard and linebacker Steve Myhra. "But we've won it twice, so I hope they'll say we're really got something going for us."

George Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears, seemed to agree. He said in Chicago Monday night that "I definitely would class the Colts with the great teams I have seen."

Last year the dean of NFL owners and coaches said "a team must prove itself over several years."

Voting Varies For Favorite In Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A surprising tide of favoritism for the Washington Huskies cropped up today among members of the press corps here to cover the Rose Bowl New Year's Day.

One poll of writers, television and radio men came out with 55 selecting Washington to win to 39 favoring Wisconsin, the Big Ten champion.

A less extensive poll came out 17 - 15 favoring Wisconsin. The Midwest voted solidly for the Badgers, the Northwest unanimously for Washington.

Professional odds still favor Wisconsin by at least six points.

One-a-day workouts remained in effect for both squads today while Coach Milt Bruhn continued his barred-gate policy for all West Coast writers.

Big Jim Owens confided that he is feeling somewhat better over the condition of his Huskies and said "by game time I think we will be all right."

Bad weather at home, as well as a missed key workout here, hampered the Huskies' training program.

Bruhn apparently had no such concern.

"We are on schedule and I hope we will be ready to play a real fine football game New Year's Day," Bruhn observed.

Springfield's Trio Retains Scoring Lead

NEW YORK (AP)—Springfield's trio of Floyd Smith, Bill Sweeney and Art Stratton continue to hold the top three spots in the American Hockey League scoring race although held to five points between them last week.

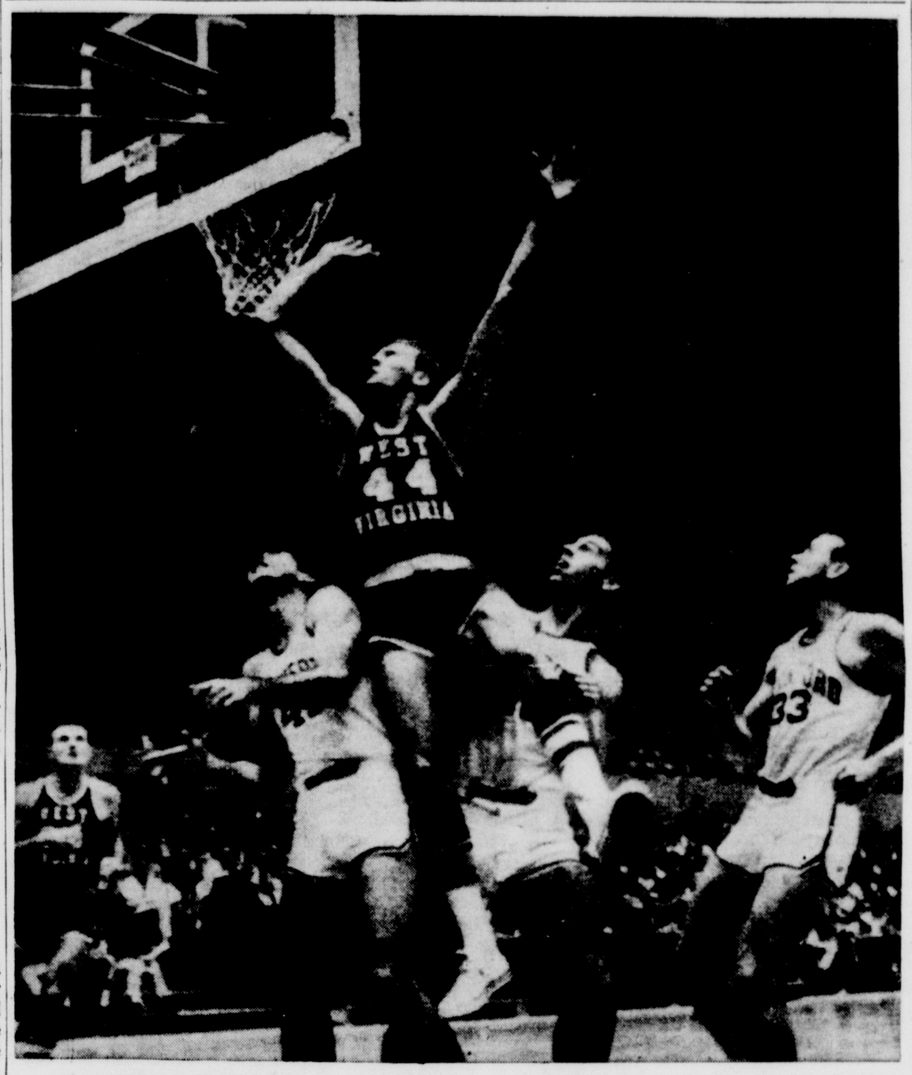

Smith retained first place by picking up two points for a total of 50. He has scored 17 goals and assisted on 33.

Stratton added two points, Sweeney one, and the Indians' teammates are tied for runner-up with 45 points.

Sweeney is tied for the lead in goals (19) with another teammate, Harry Pidhirny, and Providence's Ray Ross. Stratton is top man in assists (34).

Rochester's Ed Chadwick is No. 1 goalie, allowing a low of 2.61 goals a game.

When Pittsburgh upset Penn State the Panthers increased their edge in the season series. Pitt now leads 33-23. Three games were ties.

ALL-AMERICAN Jerry West of West Virginia scores in the first period against Stanford in their opening game in the first Los Angeles basketball classic. The halftime score was 23-23 but West Virginia pulled away in the second half for a 66-47 victory. The tournament runs three days and features eight of the nation's top college teams. Buckeyes Nipped; Lucas Tallies 34

By The Associated Press

For the second Monday in a row Ohio State's towering Buckeyes were involved in a 189-point game and came off on the short end.

The Bucks suffered their second defeat of the season in dropping a 96-93 decision to the Kentucky Wildcats at Lexington. Last Monday Utah nipped Ohio State, 97-92.

Adolph Rupp's cagers had to overcome a 15-point deficit — 10 points at the half—to claim their sixth victory in nine starts. Ohio State, winding up its pre-Big Ten games, is 7-2.

After a torrid first half which ended with the Bucks leading 59-49, Kentucky turned on a terrific come-from-behind effort, grabbing the lead for good with a little more than two minutes left in the game.

Jerry Lucas poured in 34 points for Ohio State, but the combination of Bill Lickert and Bennie Coffman — totaled 55 markers for the victors. Lickert got 29 and Coffman 26. Every Ohio starter scored at least a dozen markers.

Ohio State hit 64.1 per cent of its field goal shots in the hot first half but cooled off considerably after the intermission and settled for 49.4 per cent for the game. The Wildcats finished with a 55.4 mark in piercing the Buckeyes' question-mark defense.

Ohio schools came off with victories in all of the major holiday tournaments they played in.

Cincinnati (8-0) moved into the finals of the ECAC tourney in New York with an 86-77 win over St. Joseph's of Philadelphia. On Dec. 11 the Bearcats crushed the same St. Joe team 123-79 in Cincinnati.

Oscar Robertson, for the first time this year and for one of the few times in his college career, was outscored. St. Joseph's Bob McNeill tallied 30 points and Cincinnati's Bob Wiesenhahn had 28 while the "Big O" was limited to 25.

Cincinnati led 45-34 at the half but held only a slim five-point lead with 1:30 left.

In the Dixie Classic at Raleigh, N.C., Dayton (7-1) withstood a late rally to defeat defending champion North Carolina State 36-32. The game was the lowest scoring contest in the 11-year history of the event.

The Flyers' sophomore star from Cleveland, Gary Roggenburk topped the scoring in the slow contest with 16 points.

In the Hurricane Classic at Miami, Fla., Xavier of Cincinnati (8-1) posted an opening round victory over Florida, 86-74. The Musketeers never trailed.

Jack Thobe led the victors with 19 points, but top honors went to Florida's Bobby Shiver who netted 21.

Bowling Green won a see-saw battle with Tulsa, 61-58, to notch a first-round victory in the All-College tourney in Oklahoma City.

Tulsa held a 31-27 margin at the half in a game that saw the lead change hands constantly. Rex Leach finally clinched the win on a driving layup with only 38 seconds remaining. The Falcons added a free throw moments later to wind up the scoring.

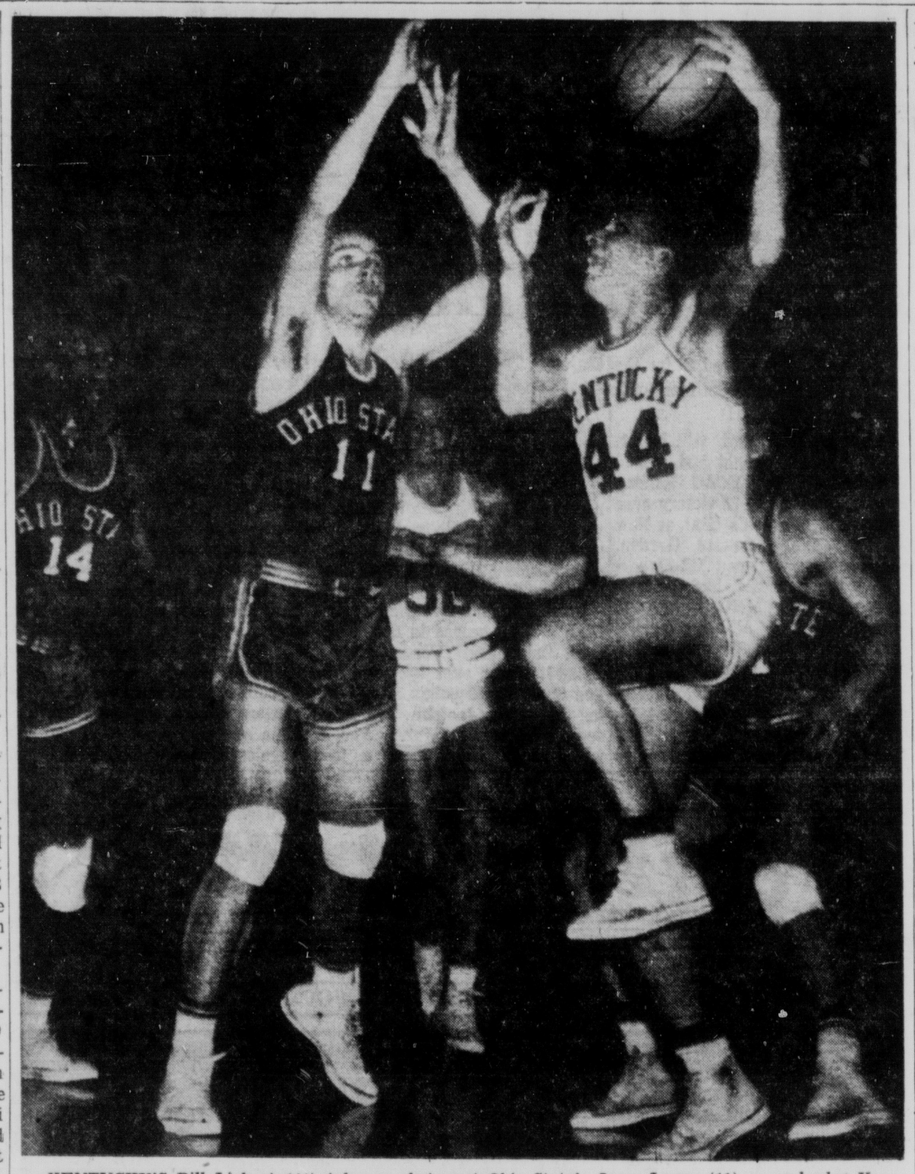

In a tournament in Ohio, Toledo and Akron teamed up to sweep the opening round of the Akron Invitational. Toledo won the opener 74-40 from Western Ontario and Akron crushed Lawrence Tech 111-66 in the finale.

The only defeats suffered by Ohio schools came when Evansville of Indiana won its own tournament by defeating Wittenberg 70-60; Southern Illinois downed Youngstown 85-66, in a tourney at Quincy, Ill., and Stewart AFB dumped Mount Union 86-71, in the Ashland Invitational. Ashland won the other game of its meet, stopping Heidelberg 95-79.

As a result of Monday's outcomes in the various major tourneys, Cincinnati plays Iowa (8-1) for the championship in the Madison Square Garden event; Dayton takes on Wake Forest in a Dixie semifinal; Xavier plays Miami (Fla.) in the Hurricane final, and Bowling Green strives to upset host - defending champion Oklahoma City in an All-College meet semifinal.

Cincy Still Holds No. 1 Spot In College Standings

By The Associated Press

Big O and Co., formally known as Oscar Robertson and Cincinnati, still top the nation's college basketball teams in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters.

The voting was conducted over the weekend, so the results of Monday's tournaments were not a factor. Robertson had solidified Cincinnati's position by scoring 47 points in Cincinnati's 96-56 rout of St. Bonaventure in Saturday's first round of the ECAC Holiday Festival.

Cincinnati drew 57 of the 103 first place votes. West Virginia received 27, California 14 and Utah five. In the point total, Cincinnati led West Virginia 932-879.

West Virginia, idle last week, edged a bit closer to Cincinnati in the balloting despite Cincinnati's triumphs over Bradley and St. Bonaventure. West Virginia, with All America Jerry West, is competing in the Los Angeles Classic with such other high-ranked teams as California and Illinois.

California was rated No. 3 in the voting, moving up on its victory over Michigan State. Utah advanced two pegs to the No. 4 position by handing Ohio State its first defeat and also knocking off the College of the Pacific. But the Utes lost 63-52 to Duke last night in the Dixie Classic at Raleigh, N.C.

Ohio State drew solid backing and ranked fifth. There was a wide gap between Ohio State and sixth-place St. Louis which defeated Kansas and Creighton during the week. They have an important date Saturday with Bradley.

Close behind seventh-place Indiana came Illinois, which took a perfect 5-0 record into the Los Angeles tournament.

Bradley tumbled from fifth to ninth after its defeat by Cincinnati and Georgia Tech slid from eighth to tenth after Southern Methodist knocked it from the unbeaten ranks.

The top ten, based on 10 for a first place vote, 9 for seconds, etc. First place votes in parentheses.

Mississippi Is Favored Over LSU In Sugar Bowl

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — It won't be only glory involved when Mississippi lines up against Louisiana State in the Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day. The Rebels have more than one football score to even with LSU and they could hardly find a better spot to settle matters.

Mississippi, ranked second in the nation behind Syracuse in the final Associated Press poll, still is smarting from the 7-3 loss to LSU last October, the only blot on the Rebels' 10-game schedule.

But even more, Mississippi hasn't beaten the Tigers since 1957, and the Rebels make no bones about this being the opportunity to make up lost ground.

Odds for the game at 1 p.m. (CST) Friday favor Mississippi by seven points, and the edge may rise in view of the growing LSU injury list. Halfbacks Johnny Robinson and Wendell Harris may see only limited service. Harris, the Tigers' ace field goal kicker, has a broken left arm while Robinson broke his left hand in a fall last week.

Mississippi, on the other hand, reports its squad in top physical shape, and that includes starting end Johnny Brewer and senior halfback Jimmy Hall, both of whom missed the season's closer against Mississippi State because of leg injuries.

The game is expected to resolve itself into a battle between strong running games and two of the nation's top defenses. LSU ranked second nationally in total defense while Mississippi took the No. 3 spot.

Baltimore Colt Official Reported Satisfactory

BALTIMORE (AP)—Don Kellet, Baltimore Colts general manager and vice president who collapsed Monday, was reported in satisfactory condition today at Union Memorial Hospital.

The 50-year-old Colt official was admitted to the hospital for treatment of what Dr. Erwin Mayer, team physician, described as "sheer exhaustion."

Mayer said Kellett collapsed in a taxicab taking him to a luncheon celebrating Sunday's 31-16 Colt victory over the New York Giants for the National Football League championship.

Packer Star Selected Top Rookie In NFL

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers aren't going to be the doormet of the National Football League any longer the loop's rookie of the year said today.

Boyd Dowler, a 6-5, 220-pound end and flanker back, predicted the resurging Packers would be in the thick of contention for the 1960 pro grid championship.

Dowler, who was converted from a collegiate passing star at Colorado University to an adept pass-snagging end in the pro circles, expressed surprise when told he'd been named the league's outstanding first-year player.

Dowler sat on the bench for most of the first half of the season and it wasn't until mid-season that he broke into the Packers' starting offensive line-up.

"It was certainly a great honor," Dowler said when advised of his selection. "I'm thrilled and want to give tribute to the Packers as a whole and particularly Vince Lombardi, the coach."

Dowler said Lombardi had done a good job in rebuilding the Packers this season, adding, "We'll be in the championship race next year."

Dallas Football Fever Rises As Cotton Bowl Nears

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Football fever was rising here today as the time neared for 103 young huskies to move in for the twenty-third Cotton Bowl game.

Texas and Syracuse both come to town Wednesday — Texas from its Austin, Tex., base and Syracuse from Houston, where the Orangemen went to train with favorable weather as the lure.

Syracuse flies in at 10:01 a.m., with 69 in the party. There will be only 50 football players, however. Texas, 53 players strong, flies in four hours later.

Each team will be anxious to hold a workout on Dallas soil, Syracuse at the high school stadium and Texas at Ownby Stadium, the Southern Methodist University field.

Syracuse will find itself a 12½-point favorite to win its first bowl game in four tries. Texas will be seeking to defend one of the best post-season records. The Longhorns have won five, lost two and tied one in eight attempts.

Illinois Drops First Contest

By The Associated Press

Big Ten teams—Save for Iowa, Indiana and Michigan State — were given a basketball lesson Monday night from one end of the nation to the other.

Three teams, including previously undefeated Illinois, were dumped in the first round of the Los Angeles Classic. Three other conference teams also were defeated.

The results left the Big Ten outfits with these season records: Iowa 8-1, Indiana 4-1, Illinois 5-1, Ohio State 7-2, Michigan State 5-2, Minnesota 4-4, Purdue 4-4, Wisconsin 3-6, Northwestern 2-5, Michigan 1-5.

Jerry Lucas' 34 points in Ohio State's 96-93 loss to Kentucky boosted his lead in the Big Ten all-games scoring race.

Lucas, who has scored 30 or more points in five of nine games, has 252 points for a 28.0 average.

The Buckeye sophomore holds a commanding lead over Terry Dischinger, Purdue sophomore. Dischinger has 176 points in seven games for a 24.2 average. Walt Bellamy of Indiana is third with 166 points in eight games and a 20.7 average.

Ohio's Larry Siegfried is sixth in total points with 141.

McGuire Gets Detroit Job

DETROIT (AP) — Tricky Dick McGuire, newest of Brooklyn's coaching McGuires, becomes a man with a single mission as coach of the Detroit Pistons, one of pro basketball's most perilous jobs.

"Develop the Pistons' teamwork, that's all we ask," McGuire was told when named coach of the National Basketball Assn. club Monday night. McGuire succeeded Red Rocha, who was fired in a sudden move by the Pistons' executive board. McGuire is playing his 11th NBA season.

"We've lost 12 of our last 14 games," complained owner Fred Zollner. "There's been a tendency of each of the players to play only for himself instead of the team.

"Dick's been a team player all along. He knows teamwork."

McGuire becomes the Pistons' third coach since the club moved here from Fort Wayne just before the 1957-58 season. Charley Eckman, the holdover coach, was fired in favor of Rocha less than two months after the club started representing Detroit.

"I haven't thought much about what I'll do," said McGuire. "I'm scared that's all. I'll still play but not as much as before."

NHL Has New Point Leader

MONTREAL (AP)—Bobby Hull, six days shy of his 21st birthday, has shaken loose Boston's Bronco Horvath from a two-month grasp on the scoring leadership in the National Hockey League.

The chunky Chicago left-winger turned in a three - goal, three-assist performance for the week to take over the spot Horvath had held since the start of November.

Official league statistics released today show Hull with a pace-setting 22 goals balanced off with the same number of assists for 44 points and a three-point cushion in the scoring parade.

His three goals came in one game — Chicago's 6-1 triumph over the Bruins Sunday night. It was the third three-goal effort of the campaign for Hull.

For the slumping Horvath, the week produced a lean assist on Boston's Sunday night tally and he fell to third position behind Andy Bathgate of the New York Rangers.

Bathgate was unable to score but four assists pushed his total to 28, extended his lead in the playmaking department and gave him 41 points.

Montreal's Jean Beliveau counted twice and added two assists to run his output to an even 20-20 and climb into a deadlock with Horvath a point behind Bathgate.

Montreal's Henri (Rocket) Richard vaulted into the No. 5 spot over Gordie Howe of Detroit.

Ingo To Train 'Lazier' For Patterson Rematch

By DICK SODERLUND

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Now that a rematch with Floyd Patterson has been arranged, world heavyweight champ Ingemar Johansson jokingly said today he'll be even lazier in training than he was for the bout that brought him the title.

The return bout, set for June in New York at either Yankee Stadium or the Polo Grounds, was announced Monday by Edwin Ahlquist, the champion's adviser, and Roy Cohn, the New York attorney who heads a 10-man promotional group.

In an interview, Johansson said he was all set for the return, despite a little too much of his mother's cooking.

"Just before Christmas," Ingo said, "I was just over my best fighting weight, 198 pounds." He was 196 when he knocked out Patterson in the third round last June in Yankee Stadium.

Asked if he plans to train as he did for the first meeting with Patterson, Johansson said he always trains the same way.

"As lazily as you did before? He was asked.

"This time," said Ingo with a grin, "I will be lazier."

One of Johansson's favorite subjects in speeches and at appearances is a recital of boxing writers' criticism of his seemingly lazy training methods for the first bout.

Ingemar met with Cohn and several other members of the promotional group Monday night over a smorgasbord and under TV lights.

Cohn, former counsel to the Senate investigating committee headed by the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, and his associates recently bought full control of the old Rosensohn Enterprises, now the Feature Sports Inc.

Cohn said he will make a formal application to the New York State Athletic Commission for a promoting license.

Buckeyes Nipped; Lucas Tallies 34

By The Associated Press

For the second Monday in a row Ohio State's towering Buckeyes were involved in a 189-point game and came off on the short end.

The Bucks suffered their second defeat of the season in dropping a 96-93 decision to the Kentucky Wildcats at Lexington. Last Monday Utah nipped Ohio State, 97-92.

Adolph Rupp's cagers had to overcome a 15-point deficit — 10 points at the half—to claim their sixth victory in nine starts. Ohio State, winding up its pre-Big Ten games, is 7-2.

After a torrid first half which ended with the Bucks leading 59-49, Kentucky turned on a terrific come-from-behind effort, grabbing the lead for good with a little more than two minutes left in the game.

Jerry Lucas poured in 34 points for Ohio State, but the combination of Bill Lickert and Bennie Coffman — totaled 55 markers for the victors. Lickert got 29 and Coffman 26. Every Ohio starter scored at least a dozen markers.

Ohio State hit 64.1 per cent of its field goal shots in the hot first half but cooled off considerably after the intermission and settled for 49.4 per cent for the game. The Wildcats finished with a 55.4 mark in piercing the Buckeyes' question-mark defense.

Ohio schools came off with victories in all of the major holiday tournaments they played in.

Cincinnati (8-0) moved into the finals of the ECAC tourney in New York with an 86-77 win over St. Joseph's of Philadelphia. On Dec. 11 the Bearcats crushed the same St. Joe team 123-79 in Cincinnati.

Oscar Robertson, for the first time this year and for one of the few times in his college career, was outscored. St. Joseph's Bob McNeill tallied 30 points and Cincinnati's Bob Wiesenhahn had 28 while the "Big O" was limited to 25.

Cincinnati led 45-34 at the half but held only a slim five-point lead with 1:30 left.

In the Dixie Classic at Raleigh, N.C., Dayton (7-1) withstood a late rally to defeat defending champion North Carolina State 36-32. The game was the lowest scoring contest in the 11-year history of the event.

The Flyers' sophomore star from Cleveland, Gary Roggenburk topped the scoring in the slow contest with 16 points.

In the Hurricane Classic at Miami, Fla., Xavier of Cincinnati (8-1) posted an opening round victory over Florida, 86-74. The Musketeers never trailed.

Jack Thobe led the victors with 19 points, but top honors went to Florida's Bobby Shiver who netted 21.

Bowling Green won a see-saw battle with Tulsa, 61-58, to notch a first-round victory in the All-College tourney in Oklahoma City.

Tulsa held a 31-27 margin at the half in a game that saw the lead change hands constantly. Rex Leach finally clinched the win on a driving layup with only 38 seconds remaining. The Falcons added a free throw moments later to wind up the scoring.

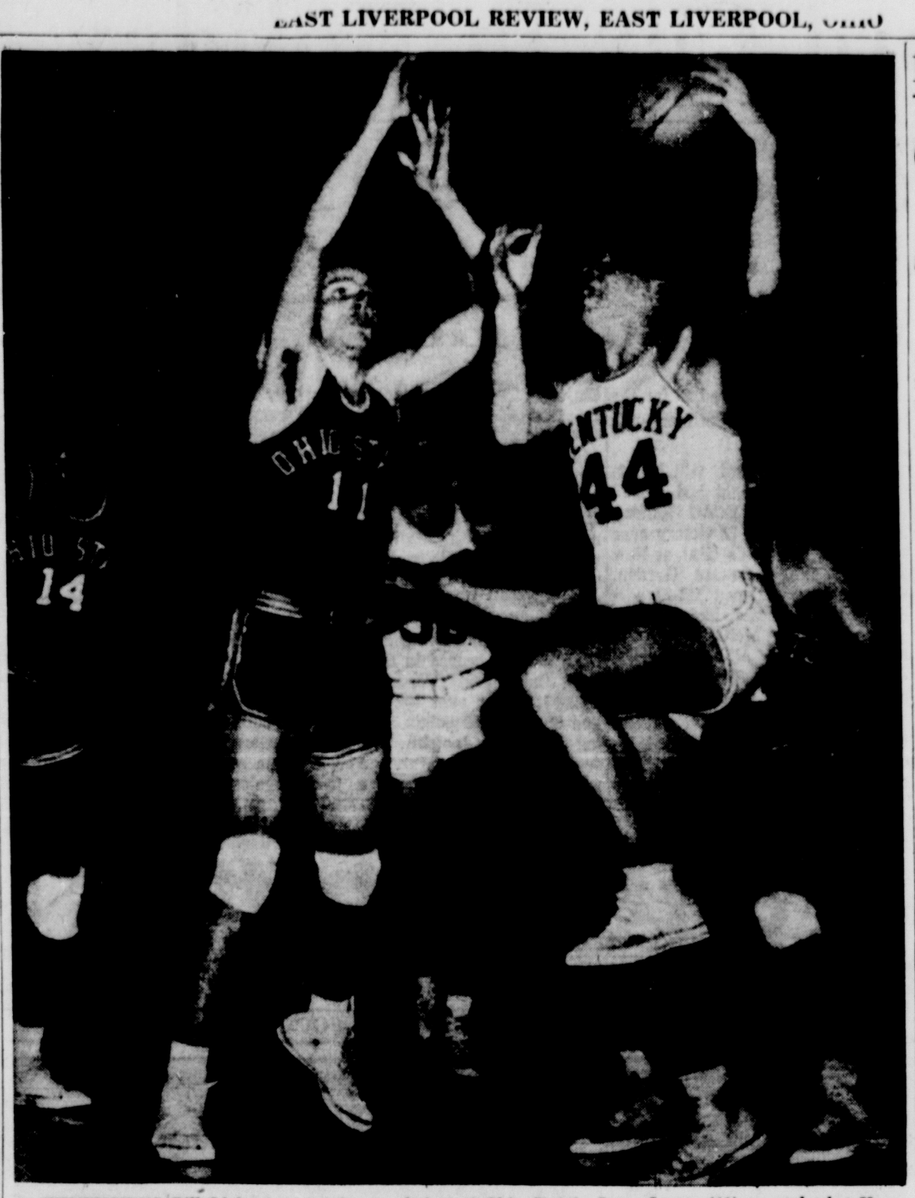

In a tournament in Ohio, Toledo and Akron teamed up to sweep the opening round of the Akron Invitational. Toledo won the opener 74-40 from Western Ontario and Akron crushed Lawrence Tech 111-66 in the finale.

The only defeats suffered by Ohio schools came when Evansville of Indiana won its own tournament by defeating Wittenberg 70-60; Southern Illinois downed Youngstown 85-66, in a tourney at Quincy, Ill., and Stewart AFB dumped Mount Union 86-71, in the Ashland Invitational. Ashland won the other game of its meet, stopping Heidelberg 95-79.

As a result of Monday's outcomes in the various major tourneys, Cincinnati plays Iowa (8-1) for the championship in the Madison Square Garden event; Dayton takes on Wake Forest in a Dixie semifinal; Xavier plays Miami (Fla.) in the Hurricane final, and Bowling Green strives to upset host - defending champion Oklahoma City in an All-College meet semifinal.

Big Ten teams—Save for Iowa, Indiana and Michigan State — were given a basketball lesson Monday night from one end of the nation to the other.

Three teams, including previously undefeated Illinois, were dumped in the first round of the Los Angeles Classic. Three other conference teams also were defeated.

The results left the Big Ten outfits with these season records: Iowa 8-1, Indiana 4-1, Illinois 5-1, Ohio State 7-2, Michigan State 5-2, Minnesota 4-4, Purdue 4-4, Wisconsin 3-6, Northwestern 2-5, Michigan 1-5.

Jerry Lucas' 34 points in Ohio State's 96-93 loss to Kentucky boosted his lead in the Big Ten all-games scoring race.

Lucas, who has scored 30 or more points in five of nine games, has 252 points for a 28.0 average.

The Buckeye sophomore holds a commanding lead over Terry Dischinger, Purdue sophomore. Dischinger has 176 points in seven games for a 24.2 average. Walt Bellamy of Indiana is third with 166 points in eight games and a 20.7 average.

Ohio's Larry Siegfried is sixth in total points with 141.

McGuire Gets Detroit Job

DETROIT (AP) — Tricky Dick McGuire, newest of Brooklyn's coaching McGuires, becomes a man with a single mission as coach of the Detroit Pistons, one of pro basketball's most perilous jobs.

"Develop the Pistons' teamwork, that's all we ask," McGuire was told when named coach of the National Basketball Assn. club Monday night. McGuire succeeded Red Rocha, who was fired in a sudden move by the Pistons' executive board. McGuire is playing his 11th NBA season.

"We've lost 12 of our last 14 games," complained owner Fred Zollner. "There's been a tendency of each of the players to play only for himself instead of the team.

"Dick's been a team player all along. He knows teamwork."

McGuire becomes the Pistons' third coach since the club moved here from Fort Wayne just before the 1957-58 season. Charley Eckman, the holdover coach, was fired in favor of Rocha less than two months after the club started representing Detroit.

"I haven't thought much about what I'll do," said McGuire. "I'm scared that's all. I'll still play but not as much as before."

NHL Has New Point Leader

MONTREAL (AP)—Bobby Hull, six days shy of his 21st birthday, has shaken loose Boston's Bronco Horvath from a two-month grasp on the scoring leadership in the National Hockey League.

The chunky Chicago left-winger turned in a three - goal, three-assist performance for the week to take over the spot Horvath had held since the start of November.

Official league statistics released today show Hull with a pace-setting 22 goals balanced off with the same number of assists for 44 points and a three-point cushion in the scoring parade.

His three goals came in one game — Chicago's 6-1 triumph over the Bruins Sunday night. It was the third three-goal effort of the campaign for Hull.

For the slumping Horvath, the week produced a lean assist on Boston's Sunday night tally and he fell to third position behind Andy Bathgate of the New York Rangers.

Bathgate was unable to score but four assists pushed his total to 28, extended his lead in the playmaking department and gave him 41 points.

Montreal's Jean Beliveau counted twice and added two assists to run his output to an even 20-20 and climb into a deadlock with Horvath a point behind Bathgate.

Montreal's Henri (Rocket) Richard vaulted into the No. 5 spot over Gordie Howe of Detroit.

Ingo To Train 'Lazier' For Patterson Rematch

By DICK SODERLUND

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Now that a rematch with Floyd Patterson has been arranged, world heavyweight champ Ingemar Johansson jokingly said today he'll be even lazier in training than he was for the bout that brought him the title.

The return bout, set for June in New York at either Yankee Stadium or the Polo Grounds, was announced Monday by Edwin Ahlquist, the champion's adviser, and Roy Cohn, the New York attorney who heads a 10-man promotional group.

In an interview, Johansson said he was all set for the return, despite a little too much of his mother's cooking.

"Just before Christmas," Ingo said, "I was just over my best fighting weight, 198 pounds." He was 196 when he knocked out Patterson in the third round last June in Yankee Stadium.

Asked if he plans to train as he did for the first meeting with Patterson, Johansson said he always trains the same way.

"As lazily as you did before? He was asked.

"This time," said Ingo with a grin, "I will be lazier."

One of Johansson's favorite subjects in speeches and at appearances is a recital of boxing writers' criticism of his seemingly lazy training methods for the first bout.

Ingemar met with Cohn and several other members of the promotional group Monday night over a smorgasbord and under TV lights.

Cohn, former counsel to the Senate investigating committee headed by the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, and his associates recently bought full control of the old Rosensohn Enterprises, now the Feature Sports Inc.

Cohn said he will make a formal application to the New York State Athletic Commission for a promoting license.

Cincy Still Holds No. 1 Spot In College Standings

By The Associated Press

Big O and Co., formally known as Oscar Robertson and Cincinnati, still top the nation's college basketball teams in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters.

The voting was conducted over the weekend, so the results of Monday's tournaments were not a factor. Robertson had solidified Cincinnati's position by scoring 47 points in Cincinnati's 96-56 rout of St. Bonaventure in Saturday's first round of the ECAC Holiday Festival.

Cincinnati drew 57 of the 103 first place votes. West Virginia received 27, California 14 and Utah five. In the point total, Cincinnati led West Virginia 932-879.

West Virginia, idle last week, edged a bit closer to Cincinnati in the balloting despite Cincinnati's triumphs over Bradley and St. Bonaventure. West Virginia, with All America Jerry West, is competing in the Los Angeles Classic with such other high-ranked teams as California and Illinois.

California was rated No. 3 in the voting, moving up on its victory over Michigan State. Utah advanced two pegs to the No. 4 position by handing Ohio State its first defeat and also knocking off the College of the Pacific. But the Utes lost 63-52 to Duke last night in the Dixie Classic at Raleigh, N.C.

Ohio State drew solid backing and ranked fifth. There was a wide gap between Ohio State and sixth-place St. Louis which defeated Kansas and Creighton during the week. They have an important date Saturday with Bradley.

Close behind seventh-place Indiana came Illinois, which took a perfect 5-0 record into the Los Angeles tournament.

Bradley tumbled from fifth to ninth after its defeat by Cincinnati and Georgia Tech slid from eighth to tenth after Southern Methodist knocked it from the unbeaten ranks.

The top ten, based on 10 for a first place vote, 9 for seconds, etc. First place votes in parentheses.

1.	Cincinnati (57)	932

Mississippi Is Favored Over LSU In Sugar Bowl

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — It won't be only glory involved when Mississippi lines up against Louisiana State in the Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day. The Rebels have more than one football score to even with LSU and they could hardly find a better spot to settle matters.

Mississippi, ranked second in the nation behind Syracuse in the final Associated Press poll, still is smarting from the 7-3 loss to LSU last October, the only blot on the Rebels' 10-game schedule.

But even more, Mississippi hasn't beaten the Tigers since 1957, and the Rebels make no bones about this being the opportunity to make up lost ground.

Odds for the game at 1 p.m. (CST) Friday favor Mississippi by seven points, and the edge may rise in view of the growing LSU injury list. Halfbacks Johnny Robinson and Wendell Harris may see only limited service. Harris, the Tigers' ace field goal kicker, has a broken left arm while Robinson broke his left hand in a fall last week.

Mississippi, on the other hand, reports its squad in top physical shape, and that includes starting end Johnny Brewer and senior halfback Jimmy Hall, both of whom missed the season's closer against Mississippi State because of leg injuries.

The game is expected to resolve itself into a battle between strong running games and two of the nation's top defenses. LSU ranked second nationally in total defense while Mississippi took the No. 3 spot.

Syracuse at the high school stadium and Texas at Ownby Stadium, the Southern Methodist University field.

Syracuse will find itself a 12½-point favorite to win its first bowl game in four tries. Texas will be seeking to defend one of the best post-season records. The Longhorns have won five, lost two and tied one in eight attempts.

Dallas Football Fever Rises As Cotton Bowl Nears

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Football fever was rising here today as the time neared for 103 young huskies to move in for the twenty-third Cotton Bowl game.

Texas and Syracuse both come to town Wednesday — Texas from its Austin, Tex., base and Syracuse from Houston, where the Orangemen went to train with favorable weather as the lure.

Syracuse flies in at 10:01 a.m., with 69 in the party. There will be only 50 football players, however. Texas, 53 players strong, flies in four hours later.

Each team will be anxious to hold a workout on Dallas soil,

Packer Star Selected Top Rookie In NFL

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers aren't going to be the doormet of the National Football League any longer the loop's rookie of the year said today.

Boyd Dowler, a 6-5, 220-pound end and flanker back, predicted the resurging Packers would be in the thick of contention for the 1960 pro grid championship.

Dowler, who was converted from a collegiate passing star at Colorado University to an adept pass-snagging end in the pro circles, expressed surprise when told he'd been named the league's outstanding first-year player.

Dowler sat on the bench for most of the first half of the season and it wasn't until mid-season that he broke into the Packers' starting offensive line-up.

"It was certainly a great honor," Dowler said when advised of his selection. "I'm thrilled and want to give tribute to the Packers as a whole and particularly Vince Lombardi, the coach."

Dowler said Lombardi had done a good job in rebuilding the Packers this season, adding, "We'll be in the championship race next year."

Baltimore Colt Official Reported Satisfactory

BALTIMORE (AP)—Don Kellet, Baltimore Colts general manager and vice president who collapsed Monday, was reported in satisfactory condition today at Union Memorial Hospital.

The 50-year-old Colt official was admitted to the hospital for treatment of what Dr. Erwin Mayer, team physician, described as "sheer exhaustion."

Mayer said Kellett collapsed in a taxicab taking him to a luncheon celebrating Sunday's 31-16 Colt victory over the New York Giants for the National Football League championship.

December Iron Ore Shipments Above '58

CLEVELAND (AP) — Iron ore shipments on the Great Lakes this month totaled 3,149,947 gross tons, compared with 75,313 tons in December 1958, the American Iron Ore Assn. reported today.

Total shipments for the season, which closed recently, amounted to 46,691,291 tons. This was a decrease of 6,176,737 tons from the 52,868,028 tons shipped during the 1958 season.

The majority of the ore boats were idle during the 116 - day walkout by the United Steelworkers Union, which ended Nov. 7.

Duke University — then Trinity College — lost its first basketball game to Wake Forest 24-10. That was in 1906.

Arkansas Coach Urges Emphasis Put On Players

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Take the emphasis off the coaches and put it on the players, says Frank Broyles, whose Arkansas football team will meet Georgia Tech in the Gator Bowl game Saturday.

Many stories have been written about Broyles, in his first bowl game as a head coach, meeting his alma mater and his former mentor, Coach Bobby Dodd. Broyles not only played at Tech, he was an assistant coach under Dodd for six years.

"They've been harping on that point a little too much, I believe," Broyles said Monday. "I would like to see more about the boys in the papers than about me and Coach Dodd."

He carried out his theme by calling attention to the two All-America players who will see action — Arkansas' Jim Mooty and Tech's Maxie Baughan.

"Mooty is not just a good runner like some of the top halfbacks," Broyles said. "He can do just about anything well. There is no doubt about him being All-America."

The Arkansas coach said he saw Georgia Tech play its final season game against Georgia and "Maxie Baughan is just as good as they say he is."

City Man Asks $50,000 In Daughter's Injuries

Charles Cornell of R. D. 2 filed suit for $50,000 in Common Pleas Court Monday on behalf of his daughter, Wanda Cornell Jackson, 19, claiming personal injuries in an auto accident.

Francis C. Weaver, 212 W. Martin St., East Palestine, was named defendant.

Cornell claims his daughter, then 17, was riding in a car driven by John Smith on Route 170 Dec. 27, 1957, and had stopped to make a left turn into the Smiths Ferry-Lisbon Rd. and was struck from the rear by the defendant's car, causing multiple injuries.

Fog Blamed For Crash On Route 7 At Stratton

Heavy fog was blamed for a collision of two cars on Route 7 at Stratton Monday afternoon at 4:40.

The Wintersville State Highway Patrol said a car driven by Glenn Griffith, 47, of Steubenville was struck in the rear by another driven by Richard E. McGuire of Martins Ferry. Officers said an unidentified car halted in front of Griffith to pick up a passenger. Griffith halted but was not seen by McGuire.

Celtics Need Win Over St. Louis To Match Streak

NEW YORK (AP) — A great scoring duel between Cincinnati's Jack Twyman and Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain is beginning to take shape, but is being overshadowed by the Boston Celtics great winning splurge.

The Celts need only to beat St. Louis Wednesday night to tie the National Basketball Assn. consecutive game winning streak at 17 after edging Minneapolis 107-104 Monday night.

Scoring statistics released today show Twyman with 1,088 points, only 47 ahead of the Philadelphia rookie who has played in six less games. Chamberlain has 1,041 for a 35.9 average in games through last Sunday.

St. Louis' Bob Pettit is third with 781, followed by Elgin Baylor of Minneapolis with 764 and Detroit's Gene Shue with 731.

Twyman and Chamberlain gave a good indication of what is to come when they faced each other Monday night and the 7 foot 1 Philadelphia center won the duel 39-35, as the Warriors defeated the Royals 109 - 104. Wilt also cracked St. Louis' Kiel Auditorium rebound record with 39.

In the second half of the double-header the St. Louis Hawks beat the Syracuse Nats 120-106 as Cliff Hagan and Pettit led the winners with 28 and 22 points respectively. Dick Barnett led Syracuse with 24.

Arkansas Coach Urges Emphasis Put On Players

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Take the emphasis off the coaches and put it on the players, says Frank Broyles, whose Arkansas football team will meet Georgia Tech in the Gator Bowl game Saturday.

Many stories have been written about Broyles, in his first bowl game as a head coach, meeting his alma mater and his former mentor, Coach Bobby Dodd. Broyles not only played at Tech, he was an assistant coach under Dodd for six years.

"They've been harping on that point a little too much, I believe," Broyles said Monday. "I would like to see more about the boys in the papers than about me and Coach Dodd."

He carried out his theme by calling attention to the two All-America players who will see action — Arkansas' Jim Mooty and Tech's Maxie Baughan.

"Mooty is not just a good runner like some of the top halfbacks," Broyles said. "He can do just about anything well. There is no doubt about him being All-America."

The Arkansas coach said he saw Georgia Tech play its final season game against Georgia and "Maxie Baughan is just as good as they say he is."

City Man Asks $50,000 In Daughter's Injuries

Charles Cornell of R. D. 2 filed suit for $50,000 in Common Pleas Court Monday on behalf of his daughter, Wanda Cornell Jackson, 19, claiming personal injuries in an auto accident.

Francis C. Weaver, 212 W. Martin St., East Palestine, was named defendant.

Cornell claims his daughter, then 17, was riding in a car driven by John Smith on Route 170 Dec. 27, 1957, and had stopped to make a left turn into the Smiths Ferry-Lisbon Rd. and was struck from the rear by the defendant's car, causing multiple injuries.

Fog Blamed For Crash On Route 7 At Stratton

Heavy fog was blamed for a collision of two cars on Route 7 at Stratton Monday afternoon at 4:40.

The Wintersville State Highway Patrol said a car driven by Glenn Griffith, 47, of Steubenville was struck in the rear by another driven by Richard E. McGuire of Martins Ferry. Officers said an unidentified car halted in front of Griffith to pick up a passenger. Griffith halted but was not seen by McGuire.

Celtics Need Win Over St. Louis To Match Streak

NEW YORK (AP) — A great scoring duel between Cincinnati's Jack Twyman and Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain is beginning to take shape, but is being overshadowed by the Boston Celtics great winning splurge.

The Celts need only to beat St. Louis Wednesday night to tie the National Basketball Assn. consecutive game winning streak at 17 after edging Minneapolis 107-104 Monday night.

Scoring statistics released today show Twyman with 1,088 points, only 47 ahead of the Philadelphia rookie who has played in six less games. Chamberlain has 1,041 for a 35.9 average in games through last Sunday.

St. Louis' Bob Pettit is third with 781, followed by Elgin Baylor of Minneapolis with 764 and Detroit's Gene Shue with 731.

Twyman and Chamberlain gave a good indication of what is to come when they faced each other Monday night and the 7 foot 1 Philadelphia center won the duel 39-35, as the Warriors defeated the Royals 109 - 104. Wilt also cracked St. Louis' Kiel Auditorium rebound record with 39.

In the second half of the double-header the St. Louis Hawks beat the Syracuse Nats 120-106 as Cliff Hagan and Pettit led the winners with 28 and 22 points respectively. Dick Barnett led Syracuse with 24.

December Iron Ore Shipments Above '58

CLEVELAND (AP) — Iron ore shipments on the Great Lakes this month totaled 3,149,947 gross tons, compared with 75,313 tons in December 1958, the American Iron Ore Assn. reported today.

Total shipments for the season, which closed recently, amounted to 46,691,291 tons. This was a decrease of 6,176,737 tons from the 52,868,028 tons shipped during the 1958 season.

The majority of the ore boats were idle during the 116 - day walkout by the United Steelworkers Union, which ended Nov. 7.

Duke University — then Trinity College — lost its first basketball game to Wake Forest 24-10. That was in 1906.

Curb Project Set At Lisbon

LISBON — Installation of curbs on the west side of Chestnut St. Ext., near the Sadie VanFossan Swimming Pool, was authorized at a meeting of Council Monday night.

Council also approved transfer of funds to the pool authority to pay for filters and covers purchased by the pool committee.

Plans for a 450-foot storm sewer at the rear of the St. George's Catholic Church Parish Hall were tabled because street funds are not currently available for the work.

Council approved second readings for a revised ordinance governing truck traffic on village streets — permitting local truckers more leniency — and an ordinance appropriating a permanent sewer right-of-way over certain properties in the Grandview and Smith Additions.

The meeting marked the final session for Mayor John Todd and Councilmen John Blocksom, Richard Bloor and E. G. Heilbronner whose terms expire Thursday.

Attending the meeting were Raymond Dixon and Fred Steele, councilmen-elect, and Atty. Joseph Baronzzi.

Dean Stockman, mayor-elect and present councilman, said the next regular session of Council will be Jan. 11. Councilmen-elect Joseph Dornon and Robert Lower will begin terms then also.

Other Honor Inmates Due Jobs At Mansion

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Honor prisoners assigned to work at the governor's mansion in the future will come from state institutions besides Ohio Penitentiary, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has announced.

At present only prisoners from the penitentiary have been given such assignments.

Candidates for the assignments will be nominated by honor committees composed of officials at the other institutions, DiSalle explained. A central committee in Columbus will make final recommendations.

DiSalle conferred with Joseph E. Doneghy, chairman of the new Pardon and Parole Commission; Maury C. Koblentz, commissioner of corrections, and other officials before making the report.

East Firemen To Hold Training Wednesday

Volunteer firemen of the Liverpool Township East department will hold a training session Wednesday at 7 p. m. at the Dixonville fire station. Harry C. Smith, assistant chief, will be in charge of resuscitator practice.

The regular session of the fire school will be held tonight at 7 at the LaCroft station. The last session will be held Jan. 7 at the East station.

William Everett, a representative of the Fyr-Fyter Co. of Dayton, will give instructions on the recently purchased resuscitator during a meeting to be held in the last week of January for East firemen.

Next regular meeting of East firemen will be Jan. 6.

Federal Aid Promised On Road Improvement

LISBON — Federal aid is promised for improvement of a stretch of Township Road 958 off the Unity-East Palestine Rd., Columbiana County commissioners were advised Monday by Guy E. Neep, department director of the Federal Division of Planning and Programing.

The distance is estimated at 0.87 mile and the project will eliminate a bad curve near Grimn's tank shop and two winding hills.

The county will pay 50 per cent of the total cost and contracts are expected to be let in the spring, according to Walter A. Hunston, commissioner, who has been trying to get the improvement for seven years.

Slow Child Needs Help Outside School

Often in this column I have urged parents to seek outside help for the child lagging at school—a psychologist, reading expert, reading clinic or a teacher or other person as tutor. Often a parent writes: "Since I pay taxes, why should I spend extra money for help for my child? Why should the school not give him the extra help he needs?" This seems at first a reasonable question. But if the child needs help at school and doesn't get it he may continue to lag. As a parent you want to make sure everything possible is done to help your child win success at books. Because the average classroom is crowded, teachers may not be able to give the necessary individual help he needs. Besides, his school may not have a school psychologist or special classes for helping lagging pupils.

By Garry Meyers

UNFORTUNATELY, many an anxious parent is told by the teacher or principal that the school does have adequate facilities for helping his lagging child when it really doesn't.

Strange as it may seem, many elementary teachers and principals discourage parents from seeking outside help is to admit the school I think, that to admit the need of outside hlep is to admit the school is not doing its job well.

Common sense would prompt us to suppose that any teacher or principal would be very glad the parent is willing and eager to secure outside help and would aid this parent in securing it.

It may be true, of course, that the school is pursuing long-time measures with a particular child to help him come up to his native learning ability. Then outside help could be a hindrance. Too, an occasional tutor might do the child more harm than good.

BUT CERTAINLY the parent has the right to gain assurance that the school is giving the child adequate individual assistance and to be encouraged and guided to add to this aid.

I have read a good many letters from parents saying the school assures them that all is well with the child, that they need not worry but leave everything to the school.

Some have accepted the school's advice only to be disillusioned several years later, when they discover that all is worse with the child and that he's almost hopelessly in arrears.

Many parents suppose they themselves can give adequate help at home to the lagging child and try desperately to do so, and a few succeed. Yet some of these parents are not able to be calm and patient or skillful enough to provide much help.

A few, indeed, may do more harm than good. It's these parents who should employ a quiet person, preferably a teacher, to help their child for short periods daily.

My bulletins, "Helping Child with Lessons at Home" and "Parents and the Child's Homework," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Stomach Termed Most Common Figure Fault

The figure fault which is the most common, most conspicuous, and the most difficult to conceal is —the stomach. Anatomically, it is the abdomen, but if this part of the figure is "the most," it cannot be minimized by the term, "tummy."

By Ida Jean Kain

Whip out the tape and measure. Circle tape around body to include the curve of the abdomen at the level of greatest protuberance as viewed from the side. Using the bust measurement as a gauge, the waistline is rightly proportioned at 8 to 10 inches smaller than the bust circumference. The lower abdomen should be retracted and the upper part should have a slight curve. Ideally, the abdomen should measure from one-half to two and a half inches smaller than the bust.

AS EXCESS POUNDS pile on, the abdominal extension increases, spreading the middle. However, factors other than fat may figure in. Slumped posture and flabby abdominal muscles aid and abet the middle spread, at any age.

Tone of the muscles in this area is all-important. In fact, nature's girdle is a marvel of efficiency, provided the network of muscles is kept toned.

Here are two very easy exercises for restoring tone to both the side-front and long-front muscles:

Position: Lying on back on floor, knees bent, soles of feet flat on floor, arms down at sides on floor.

MOVEMENT: Contract strongly with abdominal muscles, pulling snugly up and in. Then, lift body off floor, maintaining a straight diagoonal line from knees to chest.

Very slowly lower spine to floor, one vertebrae after another. Breathe freely. Repeat 6 to 8 times. Do not arch small of back.

Send a long, self - addressed, stamped envelope for "Away With Middle Spread." Address to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Post card requests can not be answered.

Strange as it may seem, many elementary teachers and principals discourage parents from seeking outside help is to admit the school I think, that to admit the need of outside hlep is to admit the school is not doing its job well.

Common sense would prompt us to suppose that any teacher or principal would be very glad the parent is willing and eager to secure outside help and would aid this parent in securing it.

It may be true, of course, that the school is pursuing long-time measures with a particular child to help him come up to his native learning ability. Then outside help could be a hindrance. Too, an occasional tutor might do the child more harm than good.

BUT CERTAINLY the parent has the right to gain assurance that the school is giving the child adequate individual assistance and to be encouraged and guided to add to this aid.

I have read a good many letters from parents saying the school assures them that all is well with the child, that they need not worry but leave everything to the school.

Some have accepted the school's advice only to be disillusioned several years later, when they discover that all is worse with the child and that he's almost hopelessly in arrears.

Many parents suppose they themselves can give adequate help at home to the lagging child and try desperately to do so, and a few succeed. Yet some of these parents are not able to be calm and patient or skillful enough to provide much help.

A few, indeed, may do more harm than good. It's these parents who should employ a quiet person, preferably a teacher, to help their child for short periods daily.

Stomach Termed Most Common Figure Fault

The figure fault which is the most common, most conspicuous, and the most difficult to conceal is —the stomach. Anatomically, it is the abdomen, but if this part of the figure is "the most," it cannot be minimized by the term, "tummy."

By Ida Jean Kain

Whip out the tape and measure. Circle tape around body to include the curve of the abdomen at the level of greatest protuberance as viewed from the side. Using the bust measurement as a gauge, the waistline is rightly proportioned at 8 to 10 inches smaller than the bust circumference. The lower abdomen should be retracted and the upper part should have a slight curve. Ideally, the abdomen should measure from one-half to two and a half inches smaller than the bust.

AS EXCESS POUNDS pile on, the abdominal extension increases, spreading the middle. However, factors other than fat may figure in. Slumped posture and flabby abdominal muscles aid and abet the middle spread, at any age.

Tone of the muscles in this area is all-important. In fact, nature's girdle is a marvel of efficiency, provided the network of muscles is kept toned.

Here are two very easy exercises for restoring tone to both the side-front and long-front muscles:

Position: Lying on back on floor, knees bent, soles of feet flat on floor, arms down at sides on floor.

Movement: Raise hips very slightly off floor and tilting toward right, pull in forcibly with the side-front muscles. Hold to slow count of six, counting out loud so as not to hold your breath. Return to center, tilt hips toward left and again pull in forcibly and hold the muscle contraction to slow count of six. Holding helps to restore tone. Breathe freely.

Position: Lying on back on floor, knees bent, soles of feet flat on floor, arms out at sides on floor at shoulder level, elbows bent, forearms back on floor in L-shape.

MOVEMENT: Contract strongly with abdominal muscles, pulling snugly up and in. Then, lift body off floor, maintaining a straight diagoonal line from knees to chest.

Very slowly lower spine to floor, one vertebrae after another. Breathe freely. Repeat 6 to 8 times. Do not arch small of back.
